OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENCE.

The First Fight in Parliament—Attack of Mr. Disraeli on the Government—Osborne and Roebuck—A Danish Victory—Prizes at Sea—Prospects of a General War—Position of England—War or Peace—The House of Lords—Tobacco and Cotton—A King's Christening—Amalgamation.

LONDON, Tuesday, Feb. 23, 1864.

The first fight in the House of Commons came off last night. It was, I regret to say, like many other battles in these degenerate days, of an undecisive character. One of the leaders was disabled. Lord Palmerston was laid up with a cold and the gout. But the fight was a spirited one, notwithstanding, and showed that the country and the House is getting into a fighting humor.

The matter was this. The Germans have not only driven the Danes out of the two Duchies, all but a bit of an island, but have invaded Jutland, or Denmark proper. There was a report yesterday that the Federal General had received orders to withdraw his forces from Jutland, but there is no confirmation of that report. Last night Mr. Disraeli made another demand for information as to the facts, and the policy of the Government. War was going on, Denmark was invaded, and there were no papers to be had, and no policy announced. Parliament was "the least informed of any public body in Europe." Every declaration of Lord Palmerston had been "the herald of humiliation." The policy of the Government was "a deplorable and disastrous" one. The House had been "scurvily treated." Mr. Disraeli brought down the House, of course.

In the absence of Lord Palmerston Mr. Gladstone replied. The papers were being got ready as fast as possible, &c. Mr. Osborne renewed the attack, and said while their allies were being butchered and their territories invaded, the members of the British House of Commons "came sneaking into their places" and knew nothing of what was going on or what was intended, and the Government, on what seemed probably the beginning of the great European conflict, came in with a proposal to diminish the navy. He moved to postpone the consideration of the naval estimates until they had the papers on the Danish affair.

Up jumps Mr. Roebuck, ready for mischief. Such a motion, if carried would be a censure on the Government, and bring about a change of Ministry or a dissolution of Parliament. He was ripe and ready for either, and would support the motion.

The Government accepted this construction, and would be, I believe, only too glad of an opportunity to dissolve Parliament at this juncture. They are in a mess, and this would be the easiest way out of it.

But Mr. Disraeli was not ready. He would not spring a decision upon the Government in this way. He wanted fair notice and a fair fight with Palmerston there to receive the rod he has in pickle for his Lordship. A victory without a battle would rob it of half its glory. No; the leading Conservatives are preparing for a fight. I believe they settled their plan a few nights ago at Mr. Disraeli's dinner, or at the Speaker's on Saturday. So the division last night amounted to nothing. Better luck next time.

The Danes have beaten the Prussians or repulsed them, rather, with a loss of two or three hundred at Duppel. Of course, this amounts to nothing. Germany can swallow Denmark, unless Palmerston redeems his promise, made last Summer, that she should not fight alone. And the public opinion of England may compel him to keep his promise. The Danes, meanwhile, after their ancient fashion, are busy on the sea. Their cruisers are picking up any quantity of German prizes, while an embargo has been laid on all Danish vessels in the ports of Germany. On the whole, there seems to be a very fair chance that the Powers of Europe will have enough to do here, without interfering in America. Kossuth is on the borders of Hungary. Mazzini is busy in the affairs of Italy. The Poles, though scarcely able to struggle with their powerful Government, cannot but hope that a general war will give them a better chance for the freedom and nationality to which they aspire. But, as I have said so often, much if not all, rests with the Emperor Napoleon. War or peace are in his hands. England, in the present humor of her Government, will not act with him, cannot act with him, and dare not act against him. England must unite her policy to that of France; in other words, accept Napoleon as her leader and chief, bend the knee to the heir of the man she helped to defeat at Waterloo and imprisoned at St. Helena, or she must remain as now, isolated, humiliated, ridiculed, and disgraced—caricatured in the windows of every print-shop in Europe. America, North or South, stands in a better position; for whatever else may be said, neither is afraid to fight, and whatever may be the end of the existing conflict, the people of each section must forever respect the courage, determination, and sacrifices of the other, and must be respected by all who admire those heroic qualities.

While the resultless fight was going on in the Commons, the Lords met for an hour or so, and dawdled through their business as usual. Perhaps twenty Peers were present. They generally meet at 5 o'clock and adjourn at about 6, so as not to lose their precious dinners. There was an inquiry about officers sent to America. Prussian and Austrian officers, it was said, had been sent both to the North and South. The noble Lord whose business it was to reply, said three English officers had been sent to see about monitors, artillery and new inventions in the North, but it was not imagined that anything of that kind in the South would pay for the trouble of getting through the lines, and the hardship of living in the rebel territory. I am not troubling myself to copy the words, but this was the substance of the answer.

Then there was another question, or rather notice given that another would be asked, which was whether leave had been obtained by France from the Federal and Confederate Governments to remove tobacco from Richmond, and if so, whether any effort had been made by the British Government to get cotton by similar means, for the benefit of suffering Lancashire. There is a question now, to bother Earl Russell with. Did the French get their tobacco? and if so, why have not you got your cotton, to pay the Confederate loan and set all your mills agoing? Rather a poser for Lord John.

I can add an item or two to the magnificent programme of the new Emperor of Mexico, in which, as he is soon to be a near neighbor, and you may want to borrow something, ought to be of interest. When the Emperor and Empress have visited their father—father of the Empress—the King of Belgium, they will come to Windsor with him, to assist at the ceremony of the christening of the Duke of Cornwall, the young gentleman who was born the other day, so unexpectedly, to our Danish Princess of Wales. King Leopold, as uncle of Prince Albert, and cousin by marriage of the Queen of England, is an august relative in a double and twisted way, of the small Dukeling, who, if he lives, will be Prince of Wales and King of England—if he lives and nothing happens to prevent—King of Great Britain and Ireland. I should have said and Defender of the faith, or of so much as the essayists and reviewers, Puseyites and Bishop Colenso, may have left of it to defend. Her present Majesty finds it so troublesome to fulfill this part of her royal functions that she has appointed a commission to examine the Prayer-book and XXXIX Articles, and see what still remains to be defended.

Still, the very minute budling of royalty is to be made a Christian on the 10th of March, with august ceremonies, and the presence of several Kings and Queens, and one Emperor certain. Who knows if Louis N. may not run over and kiss the baby, and horrify Mr. Roebuck again, as his Imperial Majesty did when he kissed the baby's grandmother. Tastes differ; but if an Emperor kisses a Queen, and anybody is to be indignant, I do not see that it should be a mere spectator. One of the pirates hanged yesterday at Newgate, in his oriental fashion, wanted to kiss one of the jailors, who had been kind to him, and seemed more hurt and mortified when the Englishman declined the salute than he did at being hanged. He was told that Englishmen did not kiss each other—but even this explanation did not console him. Perhaps he thought they should do so. I am not of that opinion. Americans require to stay several years in England before they can make up their minds to kiss the women—let alone the men. Mr. Hawthorne, for example, stayed four years, and then some of the nice darlings began to look pretty to him. It's all in use. It may be that the Bushwomen and Hottentot ladies, whose effigies I saw yesterday at the Crystal Palace, might in time become attractive—only it should be a very long time.

And this reminds me that the redoubtable New-York correspondent of the London Times has devoted one of his recent letters to the alleged propagation of certain theories of amalgamation in North America. I doubt whether much can be done by theorizing on such matters. People are governed by circumstances, principles or attractions. But if Mr. Mackay wished to find anybody to censure in this matter, he needed not to leave the shores of this merry England. When the English had slaves of their own in London they wore brass collars like their dogs, each collar locked on cuffie's neck, and engraved with the name of his owner. That was not very long ago. There are slaves in Hogarth's pictures, and in the comedies of that period. There were negro slaves in London, until an English Judge ruled that they could not be legally held in bondage. That decision set them free, and the free negroes became such a nuisance in London, perhaps, on account of their treatment, that they were all sent to Sierra Leone, on the coast of Africa, where the lions may have eaten them up. Not much was ever heard of them. But when free negroes began to come to England from America, they were petted as much as their own had been abused. Negroes in London are seen in the best society, and are sought for next to the nobility. A decent negro in London, especially if an escaped slave, gets more invitations to dinners, and is more lionized, than any but the most distinguished white men. The loveliest girls hang upon his arms and laugh at his jokes. You see it in the fashionable promenades, the parks, in the dress circle and private boxes at the opera, and in the saloons of the nobility. I have heard a negro ex-whitewasher from Cincinnati, speaking at a public meeting with great applause, though he was illiterate, vulgar, and anything but an orator. He spoke like a whitewashing darkey as he was, but he did not whitewash the country he came from. I think he told more lies and bigger lies in twenty minutes than any man, black or white, I ever listened to, and as his lies were all in abuse of America, and especially of New-York City and State, the bigger and worse they were, the more was he applauded.

No, Doctor of Laws, and poet of the good time that is so long a coming, you had best "dry up" on this matter of amalgamation; if the North takes to the "eternal nigger," it will only be following the fashion set for it on this side of the Atlantic.

The five pirates, as I have intimated, were hanged yesterday at Newgate. One was a Greek, the rest Malay Spaniards from Manilla. They were mere boys—the eldest only 25, and they had been, it is said, half starved on their ship, and kept on a pint of foul water a day in the tropics. There is little doubt that they were made desperate, and driven into a savage mutiny. And they are hanged. It may have been the best thing that could be done with them, though some hold it the worst.

PROCEEDINGS IN PARLIAMENT.

THE DETENTION OF THE RAMS.

In the House of Commons on the 23d, Mr. Seymour Fitzgerald took the Government to task for seizing the iron-clad rams belonging to Messrs. Laird, and asserted that it was done in contravention of the law. In moving for all the correspondence on the subject, he said he should deplore a war with America, but he would rather that the Government should go to war with her than that they should infringe the law of England in consequence of the threats of a foreign Ambassador.

The Attorney-General defended the Government and explained their legal action from first to last with respect to these rams. He claimed for the Government the merit of having acted from a sense of justice and from no other motive.

Speeches were made deprecating the course pursued by Government by Mr. Horsfall, Lord R. Cecil, Sir H. Cairns and Mr. Walpole—and they were replied to by Mr. W. E. Forster, Mr. Baring and the Solicitor General—after which the House divided with the following result: For the motion, 153; against, 178; majority for Government, 25. The announcement was received with loud cheers from the Ministerial side.

THE CASE OF THE CHESAPEAKE.

In the House of Commons on Feb. 19 Mr. Haliburton rose to ask the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for information relative to the capture of a ship under the Confederate flag, by a Federal vessel of war, within the harbor of Pankbar, in Nova Scotia, and under the guns of the fort; whether complaint had been made of this outrage to the Government of the United States, and, if so, what answer had been given thereto; and to move an address for copies of correspondence thereon.

Mr. Layard said the honorable member (Mr. Haliburton) had with great propriety abstained from making any remarks upon that part of the subject which was still under judicial inquiry. With regard to the seizure of the vessel, he had stated accurately what took place. It was well known that some agents of the Confederate States took a passage on board the Chesapeake, seized upon the captain and crew, killed one of the officers and wounded two others, and carried off the vessel. They then took refuge in a harbor of Nova Scotia. An American gunboat entered that harbor, and recaptured the vessel illegally and by force. As soon as information was received in this country of what had taken place the Government sent instructions to Lord Lyons to ask for immediate explanation and redress. He might, however, state that long before the instructions which were sent to Lord Lyons were received, Mr. Seward, of his own accord, having heard of the occurrence, made a communication to Lord Lyons, at first doubtful as to what the facts really were; but when the facts were ascertained Mr. Seward made a full apology, expressed his regret, and that part of the question terminated. Some time would elapse before the papers would be ready, and as the country would be anxious to receive information on the subject, he would read to the house Mr. Seward's dispatch and the answer to it from the noble Earl at the head of the Foreign Office.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, 1864.

The undersigned, Secretary of State of the United States, has the honor to present his respects to the Right Hon. Lord Lyons, accredited to this Government as the Minister Plenipotentiary of her Britannic Majesty, and to state that he has submitted to the President certain papers which were placed in the hands of the undersigned by his Lordship on the 2d day of this month, and which are described as follows:—1, Memorial of Susan Henry; 2, Affidavit of John E. Holt; 3, Memorial of John E. Holt; 4, Affidavit of John E. Holt; 5, Provincial Secretary to Mayor of Halifax, Dec. 19, 1863; 6, Mayor of Halifax to Provincial Secretary, Dec. 19, 1863; 7, Same to same, Dec. 22, 1863; 8, City Marshal to Mayor of Halifax, Dec. 21, 1863; 9, Police Constable Hutt to City Marshal, Dec. 21, 1863. The undersigned is authorized, in the first place, to express to his Lordship his appreciation of the delicacy of the manner in which his Lordship has thus, without formal complaint, brought to the notice of this Government the fact that the commissioner and other officers of the United States steamer Ella & Annie, in their recent visit to Halifax in pursuit of pirates who had captured the American steamer Chesapeake and taken refuge within British jurisdiction, directly violated the sovereignty of Her Majesty by the assumption of power and authority in the name of the United States, as well on board the said steamer Chesapeake as on board the British schooner Investigator, while within British waters, without having obtained consent thereto of the authorities of Her Majesty's Government there or elsewhere. The undersigned observes that in some of these papers it is represented that the acts of power and authority referred to were attended with circumstances of severity, rigor and insult to British subjects. The undersigned, however, thinks that it sufficiently appears from the papers that the rigor and severity alleged were not greater than were necessary to secure the persons of the pirates, in pursuit of whom the officers complained of were engaged, and to deliver them up to the British authorities of that place. He hopes that this view of the subject may be taken by her Majesty's Government. The undersigned would observe, in the next place, that the Chesapeake and the prisoners were promptly delivered to those authorities, in compliance with the instructions of this department. The undersigned is further authorized to assure Her Majesty's Government, in the spirit of a former communication made by the undersigned to his Lordship, relating to the capture of the Chesapeake in British waters, that the President disapproves and regrets the act of force, power and authority which was exercised by the officers of the Ella & Annie within British waters, on the occasion mentioned, as a violation of the law of nations and of the friendly relations existing between the two countries, so greatly to the satisfaction of the United States and to the advantage of both nations.

The President has reason to believe that the proceedings thus disapproved were taken by the officers concerned under the influence of a patriotic and commendable zeal to bring to deserved punishment outlaws who had offended against the peace and dignity of both countries. The President, while he recognizes this circumstance as modifying the character of the transaction, and mitigating the censure to be bestowed upon it, nevertheless freely concedes that it does not constitute a justification for the violation of the sovereignty of Great Britain, which these officers have committed. He has, therefore, directed that they shall be censured for this violation, and he will take such other means as may be necessary to prevent a recurrence of the grievances complained of. Fully determined to make all the amends that are due to Great Britain in the premises, the undersigned will await the consideration of Her Majesty's Government upon the case as it has now been submitted.

The undersigned avails himself, &c., &c.,
(Signed) WM. H. SEWARD.

FOREIGN OFFICE, Feb. 3, 1864.

MY LORD: Your several dispatches of the numbers and dates specified in the margin, respecting the case of the Chesapeake, together with the papers which have been received by the Secretary of State for the Colonies from the colonial authorities in North America, have been submitted to the law officers of the Crown for their opinion on the different questions raised in them.

The greater part of those questions have reference to the administration of the law in the colonies; and I need not trouble your Lordship with the view taken of them by the law officers of the Crown.

The Secretary of State for the Colonies, to whom I have communicated the opinion of the law officers, will doubtless give full instructions to the several colonial authorities.

The readiness which Mr. Seward, in his first communication with your Lordship, manifested to make all proper and suitable reparation for the acts of the United States officers has rendered it unnecessary for me to insist upon the questions which, under other circumstances, it would have been my duty at once to instruct your Lordship to discuss with the Government of the United States, namely, the willful and flagrant violation of her Majesty's territory by the officers of the United States cruiser Ella & Annie.

The Government of the United States having subsequently made, as reported in your Lordship's dispatch of the 12th of January, a full apology for the violation of Her Majesty's territory, committed by its officers in the case of the Chesapeake, it is only necessary for me to authorize your Lordship to state to Mr. Seward, that Her Majesty's Government accept that apology in the same spirit in which it has been offered, and are truly glad that the matter has been settled in a manner honorable to both parties, and calculated to improve the friendly relations which Her Majesty's Government are always anxious to maintain with the Government of the United States. I am, &c., (Signed.) RUSSELL.

The Lord Lyons, G. C. B., &c.

He (Mr. Layard) trusted that the apology and the answer would prove satisfactory to the honorable member and to the country. [Hear, hear.]

THE TOBACCO AT RICHMOND.

Mr. Layard, in reply to Sir R. Clifton, stated that it was true that Her Majesty's Government, on the application of the French and Austrian Governments, had consented that those Governments should pass a quantity of tobacco through the blockade, with the approval of the American Government. The tobacco was the property of the Austrian and French Governments, and was in Richmond when the civil war broke out. Her Majesty's Government had not made a similar application for the passing of cotton for the benefit of the distressed operatives of Lancashire. The case of cotton was altogether different, as it was not held by the Government, but by private individuals.

OUR MILITARY OPERATIONS.

In the House of Lords on the 22d Earls De Grey and Ripon, in reply to Lord Stratheden, said it was not the intention of Government to send military Commissioners to report on the operations of Federal and Confederate armies; but three officers (an engineer, an artillery officer, and an army officer) had been sent to report on the iron-clads. For obvious reasons no officers had been sent to the Confederate States.

THE DANISH QUESTION.

In the House of Commons on the 22d, Mr. Disraeli made a sarcastic attack upon the foreign policy of the Government as regards the Danish question, and complained of the repeated absence of Lord Palmerston from the House, and of the delay in producing the papers in regard to Denmark.

A general debate ensued, Mr. Gladstone and Sir George Grey being the principal defenders of the Government. Several members expressed a strong want of confidence in the Government, and Mr. Bernal Osborne moved that the consideration of the navy estimates be postponed for three weeks, in view of the unsatisfactory position of affairs.

After a debate the motion was lost by 47 against 220.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Sir J. Walsh on the 23d gave notice that he should move a resolution that, in the opinion of this House, the great changes which have taken place in naval warfare, and the critical state of our foreign relations, render it necessary that efforts should be made to complete our naval armaments on a scale calculated to maintain our naval supremacy.

Mr. Locke King asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill for the extension of the franchise.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE FENNIANS AT DUBLIN.

At an immense meeting held at the Rotunda, Dublin, on the evening of the 22d of February, by The O'Donohue and Mr. Sullivan, of the Nation, to protest against the erection of a statue to Prince Albert in College Green, the Fenian Brotherhood stormed the platform, routed the chairman and committee, and after a desperate fight of fifteen minutes remained masters of the ground, waving a flag and flourishing a naked sword. It is alleged that some of the combatants wore the American uniform. The excitement and tumult were terrific.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Official returns of the exports from Great Britain in 1863 show a total of £146,489,768, against £123,092,264 in the year 1862.

Five of the pirates of the ship Flowing Land (two of the condemned men having previously been respited) were publicly executed together at Newgate on the morning of the 22d ultimo. The unusual scene attracted an immense crowd, but owing to the precaution taken in the erection of barriers, &c., no accident took place. There was no demonstration of feeling on the part of the crowd, and the affair passed off without any trouble.

The London papers of the 23d, referring to the debate in the House of Commons on the previous evening, point out that for a few minutes the country was within an ace of a ministerial crisis. There was, however, a general unwillingness to take advantage of the Government without a fair hearing. Hence the vote in their favor.

CONTINENTAL NEWS.

THE WAR IN SCHLESWIG.

A CONFERENCE PROPOSED BY ENGLAND AND ACCEPTED.

A special telegram from Berlin to the London Times says:

"England has invited the German Federation and the Powers who signed the 1852 treaty to a conference in London. No suspension of arms. Gen. Manteuffel is gone to Vienna about Jutland affairs."

The Times also publishes the following dispatch:

VIENNA, Tuesday, Feb. 23.

The conference proposed by England for a settlement of the question relative to the German Duchies has been accepted by Austria and Prussia. Orders will be issued not to advance further into Jutland.

The Times, in a leader, says:

"The above news will encourage those who believe that there is a public conscience in Europe, and that a country like our own may, by honest and persistent endeavors, influence the counsels of foreign monarchies and rebuke the passions of a people without drawing the sword. We may now hope that the Danish question may be settled on a basis which will give tranquillity to the Duchies and yet preserve the unity of an ancient and dignified monarchy."

The Times alludes to the change of opinion in France on the Danish question, and asserts that the brave persistence of the Danes to superior forces has enlisted the sympathies of Frenchmen in their behalf.

The acceptance of the proposed Conference by Austria and Prussia is confirmed by the Vienna Gazette.

THE ATTACK ON DUPPEL.

A special telegram to the London Times gives the following version of the attack on Duppel:

"The Prussians at 7 A. M., on the 22d, drove in the Danish outposts and occupied the village of Duppel. They were dislodged by a cannonade from the bastions. The action lasted four hours. Two Danish regiments were engaged. Two hundred men are dead and wounded, with many officers. The Prussians left many dead and wounded on the field. The Danish army is in high spirits."

The following is the official Prussian account of the engagement:

BERLIN, Tuesday, Feb. 23.

An official dispatch, published to-day, says that at daybreak yesterday the Roder, Caustein and Groben Brigades, accompanied by artillery, made a reconnoissance toward the intrenchments of Duppel, within range of the guns.

Field Marshal Von Wrangel, the Crown Prince and Prince Frederick Charles were on the field.

Our loss was three killed and twenty wounded. We have several officers and 200 rank and file of the enemy prisoners, and have taken several flags.

A Copenhagen telegram dated Feb. 22, 9 A. M., says: "This morning at daybreak a Prussian reconnoitering party in force attacked our whole line. A regiment of our advanced guard was driven in, and the Prussians took the village of Dahhael. Another of our regiments, supported by our forces behind the intrenchments, continued the engagement. The action terminated at noon to-day, when our forces had reoccupied their former position."

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is said that the Ambassadors of Austria and Prussia at Paris and London have given explanations tending to show that the invasion of certain districts of Jutland had been necessary for strategic purposes, and not for political combinations.

The Allies were busily engaged in demolishing the Dannewerke at Schleswig.

A Hamburg telegram of the 21st announces that the Prussians had evacuated Jutland, but the following, from the official Staatsanzeiger of Berlin, shows that the alleged retreat from Jutland is not correct. It says: "After the retreat of the Danes from Wonseld Gen. Mulbe ordered the advanced guards of the Prussian cavalry to ascertain whether Kolding had also been evacuated, and to reconnoitre the east and west on the Schleswig territory. An hussar patrol, and Reinnshing, with the Danish cavalry, advanced during the engagement to the rear of Kolding. Gen. Mulbe subsequently received orders to keep possession of Kolding, but not to advance beyond that point."

A Copenhagen telegram announces that a blockade would be declared by Denmark of all ports on the eastern coast of Holstein and Schleswig, except Neustadt, from the 25th February.

A Flensburg dispatch states that on the 17th of February the German Civil Commissioners issued a decree abrogating the Constitution of the 18th November, and another on the 19th inst., annulling the royal Danish rescript relative to the use of the Danish language.

The Danish frigate Niels Juel continued to cruise in the English Channel in search of German vessels.

A subscription in aid of the Danes had been set on foot in England.

The London Morning Post of the 22d says there is no truth in the statement that the Austrian and Prussian fleets are about to attack Copenhagen. Austrian cruisers are only to be dispatched to the Adriatic, Mediterranean and the English Channel, for the protection of German commerce.

The London Times is most decisive in its views against England alone aiding Denmark, and bitter toward those Powers who have refused their cooperation.

"A single word," it says, "from France, Russia and Sweden would have prevented the invasion of the Duchies; but the ties of gratitude for all services do not bind France; a common nationality and a common danger cannot move Sweden; treaties and alliances are alike lost upon Russia. These Powers will neither do anything now nor tell us what they intend to do hereafter. It is their boast that England is isolated. Meanwhile the Danish monarchy itself seems to be threatened. Nothing would be easier than to send the Channel Fleet to the Baltic. But it is not by sea that the fate of Denmark will be decided, and our small land force could not permanently influence the decision of a war carried on by 40,000 to 50,000 men against States which could, if necessary, place ten times that number in the field; and calm reason steps in to remind us that it is no part of our duty to redress all the injustice which is committed under the sun."

A dispatch from Wurzburg of the 22d, says: "The conference of ministers of the minor German States, held in this city, has agreed to the proposition of Saxony, that the minor States should be united in their attitude in the event of the great German Powers endeavoring to withdraw forcibly from the Federal Diet the right of disposing of Holstein.

It was also resolved not to sanction any convention affecting the rights of the Duchies, and that the Federal Diet alone has to decide on the sequestered question.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says that the Prussian Government is about to make a demonstration against Saxony, by placing a corps d'armée in one of the Prussian provinces which, previous to 1815, belonged to Saxony.

FRANCE.

RUMORS OF FRENCH RECOGNITION.

The London Morning Post of the 24th, in its city article, says the reports from Paris are still more positive than before, that confidential negotiations have been entered upon by the French Government, with the Cabinet of St. James, for the joint recognition of the Confederate States; and it is stated that France will act alone in case of a negative reply from England. The City Editor of the Post declines to vouch for these reports.

THE MEXICAN THRONE.

The Paris Memorial Diplomatique says the Archduke Maximilian and the Archduchess would arrive in a few days at Brussels to take leave of King Leopold; and previous to their departure for Mexico they will pay visits to the Tuileries and to Windsor. Immediately afterward they will return to Vienna. On the arrival of the Mexican deputation the accession of Maximilian to the Imperial throne of Mexico will be proclaimed. Before leaving Europe their Mexican Majesties will visit Rome to seek the Pontifical blessing on their mission.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post says all the Mexican Minister's financial plans are matured. They include a loan for twenty millions sterling, five per cent. stock, and the settlement of the overdue coupons of the English-Mexican debt on satisfactory terms.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Paris letter asserts that the cordiality of the entente between France and England is no longer a matter of doubt. It is understood that the Emperor of the French agrees to coöperate with England whenever she will act, and to retain his liberty of action or of coöperation when England confines her action to diplomatic notes.

The Bourse was firmer on the 23d, and Rentes slightly improved—closing at 66.55.

SPAIN.

The British steamer Princess, which touched at Malaga to take in coal, had been seized by the authorities of that port. It was discovered that she carried in her hold some rifled cannon, muskets, ammunition and other warlike effects. The seizure was effected on account of her destination being unknown.

GERMANY.

It is stated that a treaty has been signed between Prussia and Oldenburg, giving to the former Power an extension of territory on the Jahade.

POLAND.

It is stated that three Russian infantry companies, who marched against the insurgents under Dromberowski, had been utterly routed at Kurzwo, in the Government of Radow. Only 80 Russians escaped.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL, Wednesday, Feb. 24—A. M.

COTTON—The sales of Monday and Tuesday add up 9,000 bales, including 2,000 for export and speculation. The market is dull, but steady; prices are, however, in some cases rather in favor of buyers.

TRADE AT MANCHESTER.—The business is quite of a retail character, and prices are perhaps rather weaker than on Friday last. The demand is very limited.

GEN. GRANT'S DEPARTMENT.

The Rebels Pressing in Our Lines at Chattanooga—Our Forces Withdrawn from Tunnel Hill—Movements of Longstreet.

CINCINNATI, Monday, March 7.

Dispatches to the Gazette, from Chattanooga, indicate that the rebels are pressing our lines.

Our advance has been withdrawn from Tunnel Hill to Ringgold.

The rebel furnaces at Atlanta have stopped running for want of coal.

Advices from Knoxville, of the 5th inst., state that the rebel Gen. Longstreet is supposed to be at Greenfield, and his forces hold Bull's Gap. It is thought that only a small part of his army have gone to Georgia.

Our advance is near Morristown.

Lieut.-Gen. Grant passed through here this morning en route to Washington.

REPORTS FROM MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, Saturday, March 5.

The election for sheriff is progressing quietly to-day. There is great activity among the party friends of the different candidates, and the official count will be required to determine the result.

Reports are current that Sherman has returned to Vicksburg, and are generally believed in official circles, but nothing definite has yet been received. There have been no arrivals from that place. McPherson's Corps is reported between Jackson and Black River, and Hurlbut near Brandon. Definite news is hourly expected.

Adjutant Cohen has been arrested for furnishing exemption papers for $50 apiece.

REPORTS FROM CAIRO.

CAIRO, Monday, March 7.

The steamers City of Alton, with 510 bales of cotton, and Silver Moon, with 352 bales, arrived from Memphis this morning. Eighty-four men and eight officers, rebel prisoners, from Memphis, go North this noon.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sunday, March 6.

News has just reached here that young Dahlgren, who was captured on the recent raid of Gen. Kilpatrick, is safe, having made his escape. He is the son of Admiral Dahlgren.

All is quiet in front of our lines between Portsmouth and Suffolk.

The following is a list of the casualties in Gen. Kilpatrick's command in his recent raid:

Wounded—Robert J. Eastman, 17th Pennsylvania Volunteers; Almon Kearney, 5th United States Cavalry; John B. Bennett, 1st Vermont; A. E. Davis, 1st Maine; J. E. Leprell, 1st Maine; Benjamin Sheldon, 1st Vermont; William B. Rowe, 5th Michigan; George H. Young, 2d New-York; George A. Otis, Surgeon 2d New-York.

The Bohemian Gone to Pieces.

PORTLAND, Me., Monday, March 7—9 P. M.

The Bohemian has gone to pieces, and her goods strew the coast for miles. Collector Washburn has placed a strong guard on the shore to prevent stealing. Persons, from the scene of the wreck, late this afternoon, report that nothing was to be seen of the steamship.

Guerrilla Interference with Elections.

NASHVILLE, Monday, March 7.

The guerrillas prevented the election in Hickman county on Saturday last, by destroying the ballot boxes and scattering the ballots. The band was under the leadership of a notorious fellow named Cowan. This is the only case of interruption that has occurred in that military district.

All is quiet at Chattanooga.

The Charge Against Gen. Meade Denied.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, March 7.

The Bulletin publishes the following:

To the Editor of the Evening Bulletin.

There is no truth in the statement recently published in the New-York Tribune, that one of the corps commanders at the battle of Gettysburgh had in his pocket, on the 2d of July, an order from Gen. Meade directing the army to retreat.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
JOHN GIBBON, Brig.-Gen. Vols.

Condition of the Hudson River.

ALBANY, Monday, March 7.

The river is clear to Stuyvesant, and the water is falling slowly. Snow fell to the depth of three or four inches this morning, but the weather is now clear and mild.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.

THE SITUATION IN FLORIDA.

Our Forces Securely Intrenched Near Jacksonville.

HEAVY REINFORCEMENTS SENT TO THEM.

Enormous Losses of the Rebels at Olustee.

FURTHER LIST OF UNION CASUALTIES.

The United States transport Arago, Henry A. Gadsden, commanding, from Hilton Head, S. C., at 10 A. M., and Charleston Bar 5 P. M., Friday, March 4, with mails from Port Royal and S. A. Blockading Fleet, consigned to Maj. Stewart Van Vliet, Quartermaster U. S. A., arrived here at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Arago brings a large number of veteran troops (reënlisted) on furlough, from the following regiments, viz.: Forty-seventh New-York Volunteers, Fifty-fourth New-York Volunteers, One Hundred and Fifteenth New York, Eigth Maine, Third Rhode Island Battery, and Eighty-fifth Pennsylvania Volunteers; also fifty-four Confederate deserters.

Amongst the cabin passengers are some twenty officers wounded in the late engagements in Florida. Total number of passengers 128 first, and 838 second class.

There is nothing new from Charleston. The bombardment is still continued with good effect. The rebels replied at intervals, but rarely doing injury.

The supply steamer Bermuda is reported to have captured a rebel privateer in sight of Fort Pickens, after an exciting chase. The rebels had just put a prize crew aboard a captured trading vessel, which was not retaken.

All was quiet at Jacksonville on the 2d. Reinforcements were rapidly arriving, and Gen. Seymour's position was sufficiently formidable to repel any attack. Our troops are outside the town—some of them at a distance of eight miles. The fortifications in front of Jacksonville are of an extensive character. Flags of truce had communicated with the rebels for the purpose of endeavoring to obtain our wounded, who fell into their hands. The request was refused. The main body of the enemy is encamped between Ten Mile Run and Baldwin, with a considerable force at Ten Mile Run. The rebels admit their loss to be enormous, some even setting it as high as 2,000.

On the 27th a small skirmish occurred between our cavalry and the rebels, near Camp Finnegan. The rebels had five wounded. None of our men were hurt.

Gen. Gillmore arrived at Jacksonville on the 29th.

We are again under obligations to F. Grautejens, Purser of the Arago, for favors.

OUR JACKSONVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

Positions Held by our Forces—The Troops in Good Spirits—Cavalry Skirmish—Flags of Truce—Casualties.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Wednesday, March 2, 1864.

Gen. Seymour's forces still remain in front of Jacksonville. The vedettes are about a mile beyond Camp Finegan, and nine miles from the turn itself. The troops have entirely recovered from the slight shock imparted by the late unfortunate result at Olustee, and are in excellent condition to again meet the enemy. We do not entertain the slightest belief that the enemy will attack us in our present position. Whether another fight occurs depends altogether on our advance movements.

THE FORTIFICATIONS

in front of Jacksonville are of a formidable character, either for offensive or defensive purposes. The troops have been at work on them day and night, and an immense amount of labor has been bestowed upon them. The absurd reports that our forces were in imminent danger of capture were without the shadow of foundation. The enemy was too badly crippled to follow us on the retreat, and we are confident that he has little relish to attack us now. A number of gunboats lie in the stream ready at a moment's notice to open fire. Gen. Seymour's command has been largely reinforced, so that at the present moment it far exceeds the number that the rebels are reported to possess.

A CAVALRY SKIRMISH,

between one company of the rebels and a detachment of the Independent Massachusetts Battalion, occurred on Saturday, a short distance beyond Camp Finegan. The fight was of short duration, and resulted in the complete rout of the enemy, with a loss of one killed and three wounded. No casualties occurred on our side. The Independent Battalion Massachusetts Cavalry, under Maj. Stevens, has achieved lasting and brilliant honors since the commencement of the Florida expedition. It has never been worsted by the enemy, and every man in it is determined that it never shall be.

FLAGS OF TRUCE.

Last week, Capt. Dana, of the Signal Corps, and at present Acting Aid to Gen. Seymour, received instructions to communicate with the enemy under flag of truce. The object was to obtain permission to bear our wounded from the enemy's possession. He failed to obtain the permission, and on Friday Lieut. Jackson, of Gen. Seymour's Staff, was dispatched on the same errand. Lieut. Jackson was also unsuccessful in his endeavors, the enemy giving as a reason for his refusal that the wounded would convey to us valuable and dangerous information. Lieut. Jackson had an interview with Gen. Finegan in person. He was received in a gentlemanly and courteous manner, and occupied a full three hours in conversation. A minor officer stated that Finegan was in command at the battle of Olustee. There were also present Gens. Gardiner and Walker. It was claimed that Beauregard had arrived at Baldwin with reinforcements since the engagement. Finegan himself acknowledged his loss was extremely heavy, and two or three rebels had been heard to say that it would amount to between 1,800 and 2,200 killed and wounded. We have not the slightest doubt the enemy's loss fully equals that of our own.

OUR WOUNDED

have been tenderly cared for by the Surgeons in charge. Nearly all have been sent to Beaufort and Hilton Head. Not over two hundred remain in Jacksonville. Dr. Myer, of Gen. Seymour's Staff, has been unremitting in his attention and constant in his endeavors. In a day or two he will be relieved by Dr. Gross, who has been serving at Morris Island. Medical Director Swift has been here for some days.

GEN. GILLMORE,

accompanied by a few of his staff, arrived Monday. To-day he will make a personal inspection of the fortifications, and devise such other methods of defence as may be in his view essential to the position. As I have before intimated our troops are ready to again test their strength and valor with that

MONDAY, March 7—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, March 5, 1864, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of Feb. 27:

Increase in Loans	$7,337,278
Decrease in Specie	1,081,029
Increase in Circulation	25,898
Increase in Undrawn Deposits	4,048,886

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	March 7, 1863.	March 5, 1864.	Feb. 27. 1864.
Capital	$69,128,000	$69,722,508	$69,722,508
Loans	181,098,322	182,265,483	174,928,205
Specie	39,705,089	21,220,658	22,301,687
Circulation	8,693,175	5,933,249	5,908,394
Gross Deposits	232,103,285	245,415,850	250,782,110
Exchanged	57,414,073	86,491,905	95,907,051
Undrawn	174,689,212	158,923,945	154,875,059
In Sub-Treasury	14,769,681	32,767,005	35,410,777

The Bank return shows a continued large expansion in Loans and Deposits. The Banks in the Clearing House lose $1,081,029, and the Fourth National Bank and the Treasury Office gain, together, $—— over last Monday. The stock of Specie in the Bank and Treasury, to-day, compares as follows with the 29th ult.:

	Monday. Feb. 29.	Monday. March 7.
In Associated Banks	$22,301,687	$21,220,658
Fourth National		933,000
Treasury Office	20,675,021	22,093,173
Total	$42,976,708	$44,246,831
Gain since last Monday		$1,270,123

The Fourth National Bank, Capital Five Millions, went into operation on the 1st instant, and is already in the receipt of a large and increasing line of Deposits, including nearly a million of Gold from special depositors. This Bank, like the First and Second National, will receive on deposit, the same as United States legal Tender, all National Bank Notes at par, whether issued and specially redeemed on the seaboard or in the extreme West. The National Banks here will recognize the uniformity of this circulation in its evident sense, the same as the Legal-Tender issued more directly by the United States Treasury.

Speculation ran riot on the Stock Exchange to-day so far as the Railway and Coal shares are concerned. The market of the day can only be described, with emphasis, as crazy. Neither values, judgment nor discrimination are regarded in the rapid advance of prices one day over another. The wildest excitement pervades the Stock Exchange Boards and the crowd of outside speculators in William-street. There is "a gamble" on a vast scale going on from hour to hour, and we may add, as the rule of the time, that the least worthy in point of intrinsic or income value, present or prospective, among the Railway and Mining fancies, seem to advance most rapidly. How long this extraordinary state of things is destined to run, it is, of course, impossible to judge. We are simply left to record without comment, the daily rise of five or ten per cent. on the share list, without pretending to record any pretended, much less sensible reason, why some of them at least should go up at all. The New-York Roads made a comparative advance to-day on Saturday's sales. The Western Roads were much higher on nearly all the entire list, the non-dividend Stocks being rather the favorites.

At 4 o'clock, after a day of wild speculative excitement, the following figures were reported as compared as compared with Saturday afternoon same hour. The market was materially lower than at the Second Board on many of the Shares. The price of gold left off about the same as on Saturday, notwithstanding efforts were made by the operators in the Gold Room to take advantage of various idle War and Foreign intervention rumors of no substantial basis. The rates of Exchange on London were rather easier than on Saturday.

The orders from abroad for the Popular Loan advanced the price at the Second Board to 109½ ℔ cent. The first effect was at the Morning Board, when 109½ ℔ cent. was paid, as against 108 on Saturday.

The European financial advices of this morning by the City of New-York are to the effect this evening that the Bank of England rate of interest is down to 6 ℔ cent., and the London Stock market up on the English and Foreign Funds. The political news in reference to the purposes of the Great Powers on the Danish trouble is also reported less belligerent. The present mail brought further orders for United States Government Stocks, and we record a fair additional advance of 1@1½ ℔ cent. in this market on the Popular 5-20 years Loan, and 1 ℔ cent. on the 6 ℔ Cents of 1881. The London Daily News reports as follows of the British Export Trade for 1863:

The Board of Trade Returns for the month and twelve months ended the 31st December were issued yesterday. We subjoin a statement of the total declared value of the exports of British and Irish produce and manufactures during the month and tweve months in the last three years:

	For the month.	For the twelve months.
1861	£9,747,810	£125,102,814
1862	10,807,033	123,992,264
1863	14,354,409	146,489,768

The month's exports are shown to have been larger by £3,547,367, or 33 per cent., than in the same month of 1862, and larger by £4,606,590, or 47 per cent., than in December, 1861. The comparison for the twelve months shows an increase of £22,497,504, or 18 per cent., over 1862, and an increase of £21,386,954, or 17 per cent., over 1861.

GROCERIES & PROVISIONS.

THOMAS R. AGNEW, WHO IS FAMED for his energy and enterprise as the grocer and tea and coffee dealer of this City, has just opened an extensive wholesale department of his business at No. 262 Greenwich-st., right adjoining his retail store. Both these extensive establishments will be conducted exclusively on the cash principle, and everybody who wishes to save money and buy for cash, either wholesale or retail, every description of teas, sugars, flour, fish, syrups, molasses, butter, cheese, lard, hams, coffees, starch, soap, &c., &c., &c., should at once repair as above. All goods warranted as represented, or money returned and expenses paid. Mr. Agnew's experience and large cash capital, which he can control to the extent of half a million of dollars, will enable him to compete successfully with any house or houses in New-York, and we predict that this new wholesale department will be a complete success, as his other store has been, and still continues to be.

All orders from the country should be accompanied with the cash, or paid for by some house in the City.

All goods delivered free to railroads and steamboats. Address Nos. 260 and 262 Greenwich-st., and Nos. 87 and 89 Murray-st.

The Lease of the Ferry now established from the foot of Christopher-street, North River, New-York, to Hoboken, N. J.

The said Several Ferry Leases will be sold, with all the rights, privileges and advantages thereof belonging to the Corporation of the City of New-York.

CONDITIONS.

The conditions and covenants of the leases to be in the usual form of Ferry Leases heretofore entered into by the Corporation.

The Lease for each of the above named Ferries to be made to conform to the requirement of the City Charter in relation to Ferries, and also to contain covenants on the part of the lessee or lessees that he or they will conduct and manage the said Ferry or Ferries agreeable to such rules, regulations, ordinances or by-laws as are now or may hereafter, from time to time, be made or passed by the Common Council or State Legislature.

The purchaser of the ferry lease and its appendages, in each case, will be required to pay at the time and place of sale, to the Collector of the City Revenue, a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount bid for the annual rent, to apply on the rent of the first quarter, in case he executes a lease with the usual covenants, otherwise to be forfeited to the Corporation. He will be required, also, to furnish an obligation, at the same time, executed by two sureties, to this effect, that he will execute a bond with sureties to be approved by the Comptroller, for the punctual payment of the rent, quarter-yearly, and for the faithful execution of the covenants of the lease. The fees of the auctioneer, and the expense of the lease, bonds and revenue stamps to be paid by the purchaser, and no expense whatever is to be incurred by the Corporation for or in connection with the pier, slip or bulkhead, or premises proposed to be leased, during the term of the lease.

Should the lease of the above named ferries, or either of them, be purchased by parties other than the present lessees, they will be required, in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State, to purchase at a fair appraised valuation (should the present lessee desire to sell) the boats, buildings and fixtures necessary for the purposes of a ferry; said value to be fixed by persons selected by the old and new lessees, in case the parties cannot agree as to the amount to be paid for the same.

The lease shall also contain a covenant requiring each ferry-boat to have attached to its engine a fire apparatus or force pump, with not less than four hundred feet of hose, of the quality and dimensions as that used by the Fire Department of the City of New-York, and to be used for the extinguishment of fires whenever required by the Chief-Engineer, or his assistants, of the Fire Department of the City of New-York, for which services the lessee shall receive twenty dollars per hour for each hour engaged, and no time to be counted less than one hour.

MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.

LEGAL NOTICES.

IN CHANCERY—IN CHAMBERS—THE CHANCELLOR—Saturday, the twentieth day of February, in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord 1864, between the Merchants' Building Society, plaintiffs, and Martin Peter Hayes, Finbar Hayes and Joseph Williams, by bill, and John Fisken, Charles Theodore Palsgrave, George Robson, the Bank of British North America and Denis Kelly Feehan, made parties in the Master's office, Defendants. Upon the application of the plaintiffs and it appearing by affidavits that after due diligence, the said defendant, Denis Kelly Feehan cannot be found to be served with an Office Copy of the decree in this cause, bearing date the twenty-second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and Master's notice to incumbrancers. It is ordered that said defendant, Denis Kelly Feehan, do on the twenty-ninth day of March next attend at the Chambers of the Master of this Court, at Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, at such hour as the said Master shall appoint; and it is ordered that a copy of this order, together with the Master's said notice required by the General Orders of this Court, be published in the Globe newspaper, published in the City of Toronto, and the New-York Times, a newspaper published in the City of New-York, in the United States of America, once in each week for the four weeks next preceding the said twenty-ninth day of March next.
A. GRANT, Registrar.

Whereas, A suit has been instituted by the above-named plaintiffs, the Merchants' Building Society, for the foreclosure of certain lands being Villa Lots "A, B, C, and D," (excepting a small portion of the same heretofore sold by the said Martin Peter Hayes and Finbar Hayes, with the concurrence of the plaintiffs, to the Grand Trunk Railway Company,) and Village Lots numbers two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen and twenty, on the north side, and two, three, six, seven, eight, nine, ten and twenty on the south side of the Kingston Road, and Villa Lots "T and U," in the Broken front of Park, Lot number four, in the First Concession from the bay, in the Township of York, in the County of York and Province of Canada, and I have been directed to inquire whether any person other than the plaintiffs has any charge, lien or incumbrance upon the said estate, and

Whereas, It has been made to appear before me that you have some lien, charge or incumbrance upon the said estate, and I have, therefore, caused you to be made a party to this suit, and appointed the twenty-ninth day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for you to appear before me either in person or by your solicitor to prove your claim.

Now you are hereby required to take notice:

1. That if you wish to apply to discharge my order making you a party or to add to or vary the decree made in this cause, bearing date the twenty-second day of September last, you must do so within fourteen days from the twenty-ninth day of March aforesaid, and if you fail to do so, you will be bound by the decree and the further proceedings in this cause as if you were originally made a party to the suit.
2. That if you fail to attend at my Chambers at Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, at the time appointed you will be treated as disclaiming all interest in the property in question, and it will be disposed of in the same way as if you had no claim thereon, and your claim will be in fact foreclosed by such non-attendance.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of February, 1864.
A. N. BUELL, Master.

To Denis Kelly Feehan, one of the above-named defendants.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

BRYANT'S NEW VOLUME.

No Volume of Poems has ever met with such a welcome from the press.

Just Published:
BY
D. APPLETON & CO., Nos. 443 and 445 Broadway.
THIRTY POEMS.
BY
W. CULLEN BRYANT.
1 vol. 12mo. Cloth, $1 25; Cloth, gilt, $1 75; Morocco, $3 50

From the World.

No English poet surpasses him in knowledge of nature, and but few are his equal. He is better than Cowper and Thomson in their special walks of poetry, and the equal of Wordsworth, the great high priest of nature.

From the New-York Times.

None of our poets have shown a greater conscientiousness or fidelity to man or nature. The emotions which he describes might be sworn to before a Court of Philosophers; the trees and flowers which he paints, and the birds which flit among them, challenge the scrutiny of the naturalist.

From the Round Table.

Throughout the volume are evidences of a serene and joyous prime, which age cannot wither, nor the rust of years corrode. The "Life that is," "A Sick Bed," "The New and the Old," "The Cloud on the Way," are all recognitions of the season to which the singer and his life-companions have arrived; but they breathe compliance with the sweet law of Nature's successions, and are radiant with faith that looks behind the vail. His philosophy, like his poetic art, resembles a tranquil river still widening toward the close.

From the Independent.

With eye undimmed—with faculties unworn—with heart still eager and hopeful—at a period of life, when, to most men, if the golden bowl be not yet broken at the fountain, the grasshopper has at least become a burden—he flings into our laps "Thirty Poems," mostly new, and all excellent.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The steamship Arago, from Port Royal on the 4th inst., arrived yesterday afternoon, bringing a large number of reënlisted veterans, and twenty of the wounded officers of the Florida expedition. News from Jacksonville is to the 2d inst., at which time reinforcements were rapidly arriving, and Gen. Seymour's position was considered sufficiently formidable to repel any attack. Our troops are a distance of eight miles outside the town. A flag of truce had been sent to the rebels with the request that our wounded should be returned, but it was met by a refusal, on the ground that by this means valuable information would be obtained. The main body of the enemy, under Gen. Finnegan, is encamped between Ten Mile Run and Baldwin. In the late battle the rebels admit their loss to have been enormous.

From Baltimore we learn of a raid in the Chesapeake Bay, on Saturday morning last, by which two vessels were captured—one a tug, the Iolas, in the employ of the Government as a dispatch boat, and the other a side-wheel steamer, the Titan, loaded with Commissary stores. The affair occurred in Cherrystone Inlet, and the telegraph station and sub-marine cable were also destroyed. The Iolas was bonded for $30,000, and the Titan was taken up the Rappahannock River. The rebels belonged to the rebel navy, and their expedition consisted of three canoes. War-steamers have gone up the Rappahannock in pursuit.

Dispatches from Chattanooga of March 6 state that the rebels are pressing our lines there, and that our advance has been withdrawn from Tunnel Hill to Ringgold. It is reported that the rebel furnaces at Ringgold have stopped running, for want of coal. Our advance in East Tennessee is at Morristown, while on the 5th, Longstreet was still reported as holding Bull's Gap, with his headquarters at Greenville.

It is announced from both Washington and Baltimore, that Col. Dahlgren and his men had arrived within Butler's lines, but the Washington news is discredited. The Baltimore dispatch announces positively, however, that "Col. Dahlgren is safe at Fortress Monroe."

Gen. Gibbon, in a letter to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, denies the assertion that a corps Commander had in his pocket, on the second day of the battle of Gettysburgh, an order to retreat.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday, numerous petitions for an increase of mail facilities between New-York and Washington were presented. A bill was introduced by Mr. Conness to amend the act to aid in the construction of a Pacific Railroad, passed July 1, 1862. The bill for repealing all acts for the rendition of fugitive slaves was made the special order for to-morrow at 12½ o'clock. Mr. Sherman introduced some important resolutions concerning the Electoral College, which were referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. The bill to grant lands to aid in the construction of a road from St. Paul to the head of Lake Superior was taken up, and advocated by Messrs. Ramsay, Wilkinson and Johnson, and opposed by Messrs. Howe and Doolittle.

In the House, yesterday, Mr. Cox offered a resolution calling on the President for information as to what measures are being urged for the exchange of prisoners. Objection was made and the resolution lies over. Mr. Alley introduced a bill to facilitate the carrying of mails with foreign countries. It requires all steamers and sailing vessels to perform the service when so directed, at a reasonable compensation, and has other important provisions. The Deficiency Bill was taken up and discussed at length without conclusion. The discussion took a wide range, covering an investigation into the question of how certain Missouri members of Congress voted when connected with the Know-Nothing party, six or eight years ago. The House adjourned at half-past five.

FROM EUROPE.

By the steamship City of New-York, from Liverpool on the 24th, and Queenstown on the 25th of February, we have four days later news from Europe. The rumors of a French recognition of the rebels had assumed a more positive shape than ever. The rebel ram question was up again in the House of Commons on the 23d, and the Attorney-General defended the policy of the Government at length. Several gentlemen made speeches against the Government, and they were replied to by Mr. W. E. Foster. Mr. Baring and the Solicitor-General, when a vote was taken on the motion calling for the papers, which stood 153 for, and 178 against—a majority of twenty-five for the Government. An immense meeting, held at the Rotunda, Dublin, on the evening of the 22d of February, by the O'Donoghue and Mr. Sullivan, of the Nation, to protest against the erection of a statue to Prince Albert in College Green, the Fenian Brotherhood stormed the platform, routed the chairman and committee, and after a desperate fight of fifteen minutes, remained masters of the ground, waving a flag and flourishing a naked sword. It is alleged that some of the combatants wore the American uniform. The excitement and tumult was terrific. The war in the Duchies was not progressing very rapidly. The allies had been severely repulsed in their attack on Duppel. A Vienna dispatch of February 23, announces that the conference proposed by England for a settlement of the Dano-German question had been accepted by Austria and Prussia. There was to be no suspension of arms, but Jutland was not to be further invaded. The Allies were busily engaged in demolishing the Dannewerke, in Schleswig. The political news in France was unimportant.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

In the Senate, yesterday, bills were noticed for the completion of the Battery extension, and for the better regulation of Manhattan-square. The bill relating to the Trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral was read and passed. The concurrent resolutions against making any distinction as to the currency in which the interest and principal shall be paid to domestic and foreign holders of State bonds, were called up, and after some discussion, the subject was made the special order or Wednesday. The bill enabling husband and wife to act as witnesses for and against each other was debated at length, and ordered to a third reading.

In the Assembly, bills were introduced incorporating the New-York Shooting Club; for a railroad in Bloomingdale-avenue; to incorporate the Manhattan Railroad Company of New-York. A resolution was adopted calling on the Canal Board to report a plan for the enlargement of locks in the Erie, Oswego and Cayuga and Seneca Canals. Reports were presented in favor of incorporating the New-York American School Institute and relative to the American Institute.

GENERAL NEWS.

Both branches of the Common Council were in session yesterday. Resolutions were adopted by both boards, requiring the Harlem Railroad Company to extend their line for short cars to Forty-second-street, and also permitting them to extend their road through Thirty-fourth-street to the East River, and also permitting the Third-avenue Railroad to extend their line through Chambers-street to Broadway, through Fifty-seventh-street to Third-avenue, through Thirty-fourth-street to the East River, over the proposed Harlem track, and through One Hundred and Thirtieth-street to Fourth-avenue. The Third-avenue grant is entirely new, but the Harlem grant is identical with the one passed by the Board of Aldermen December 14, 1863, but which was killed by a reference in the Council Board to the Railroad Committee, where it was at the close of the year. There was no debate in the Board of Aldermen on these grants, but in the Council Board Mr. Opdyke proposed to amend by requiring the Third-avenue Company to pay ten per cent. of their receipts on the extended route into the City Treasury, while Mr. Jaques proposed to require a license fee for each car. The latter gentleman made a strenuous effort to secure a reference, but Messrs. Brandon and Gross held that these extensions were needed by public convenience, and that view of the matter seemed to prevail. In the Board of Aldermen, the City Inspector sent in a much needed ordinance to regulate disinterments within the City limits. In the Council Board, Rush C. Hawkins remonstrated against the proposed purchase of Clark C. Mills' statue of Gen. Jackson, which, with the resolution of the Aldermen on that subject, was referred to the Commitee on Arts and Sciences. The Aldermen adjourned to 10 o'clock on Wednesday; the Council to 4 o'clock Thursday.

The Fourteenth Annual Commencement of the New-York Medical College took place last evening at the College, in East Fourteenth-street. The address to the graduates was delivered by Hon. John H. Anthon. The valedictory by Mr. Chas. C. Terry, of the graduating class. A large number of the most prominent physicians and surgeons of the City were present.

The Electors of the State are called upon today to vote on the proposed amendment to the Constitution, allowing those of our citizens absent in the naval or military service of the country to vote.

The orders for the draft to take place on the 10th of this month have been suspended. Gen. Hays has received notice from the War Department to that effect. No time is mentioned as to when the draft will be announced. The quota of the City will soon be completed.

Some seventy bids were opened by Comptroller Brennan yesterday for $1,000,000 of the Bounty Fund Loan. The bids ranged from a fraction to five per cent. above par.

A private letter from Havana, dated March 1, received in this City, states that the gunboat De Soto was in the dry-dock there. The blockade-runners and Secessionists in Havana had threatened to burn the vessel, and also threatened the officers with violence. The Spanish authorities, however, had given the officers of the De Soto permission to wear their side-arms, and they now visit the city fully armed.

At the Municipal election in Portland, Maine, yesterday, the Union candidate for Mayor was elected by a majority of 1,130, against a majority of 195 last year. Every ward was carried by the Union party.

The high prices of cattle one week ago brought out a larger supply, viz., 3,300 at Forty-fourth-street yesterday, but the supply was so light at the last market that all were wanted Monday at an advance of fully ½c. ⅌ lb., in some instances 1c. ⅌ lb. There was a good show of fat cattle which brought 15c. to 16½c. ⅌ lb., net weight, some at the latter price to be weighed, and some by the head, which will prove 17c. when killed, sellers putting 50 lbs. on to a bullock above his true weight. Poor, rough stags and bulls were sold at 12c.@13c., with a few scallawags as low as 10c. This is the highest thus far of the high markets.

There was intense excitement among the speculators in the Stock Exchange yesterday, and the highest figures of the season were made at the Second Board. At a later hour the market was lower on the fancies. The Government Stocks rose 1½@2 ⅌ cent. on Saturday's sales. The 5-20's sold as high as 109¾ ⅌ cent. on Foreign orders to buy. Gold about the same as on Saturday. Exchange on London not so firm.

Business was less active yesterday in Flour and Wheat, which, however, were held very firmly. Corn was much dearer and in more demand. Provisions and Whisky were less sought after and less buoyant. Sugars, Pepper, Petroleum and Rio Coffee were in good demand at former prices. The freight market was inactive and unsettled.

The Loyalists of the South.—The people of Boston are taking the lead of the country in the very worthy charity of raising a fund for the relief of the long persecuted and much suffering loyalists of East Tennessee. It is the intention, we believe, to raise by public subscription in Massachusetts, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and to use it in the purchase of such articles of food and clothing as are imperatively demanded; and the report made on yesterday by Edward Everett, who has the matter in charge, shows that in a very short time nearly fifty thousand dollars have been subscribed, mostly in sums of about fifty or one hundred dollars. Some of the most prominent merchants of this City are taking an interest in the same work of charity, as will be seen by a correspondence in another column; and, under their auspices, a public meeting will be held on Thursday of the current week, at which the condition and wants of the people of East Tennessee will be set forth. For three years past the press has been setting before the country the persecutions of these Southern Unionists; and by the terrible nature and long continuance of their sufferings, their needs may now be measured. One of the letters in the correspondence speaks of the "often taxed but always generous liberality" of the merchants of New-York; and although at present their beneficence is flowing mainly to our army through the channels of the Sanitary Commission, we doubt not that in their purses and stores will be found something to supply the wants of the faithful confessors who have upheld our cause through a long night of darkness, and amid sufferings which only heroes could endure and only devils could inflict.

Gen. Meade and His Critics.

We are very sorry to see that there is another inquiry into the conduct of the Commander of the Army of the Potomac now going on, based on complaints made by officers serving under him. We hope the interests of "eternal truth," or "eternal justice," or some other magnificent abstraction, are promoted by these investigations; for there is nothing more certain than that the discipline of the army will be, if it be not already, utterly destroyed by them. We say deliberately, that there can be nothing better calculated to render our army utterly worthless, than the practice to which Congress and the Government is addicted of listening to charges made by officers against their chief, touching his strategy or tactics. The only complaints which they should ever be permitted to make, or which by any sound and generally adopted theory of military duty, they are permitted to make, are complaints of personal wrong done to themselves. These are fit matters for examination; because examinations may be often necessary, to prevent the General from degenerating into a petty tyrant. But to allow any officer to arraign his superior before any tribunal,—we do not care how composed,—to answer for his manner of handling the army in active service, for retreating, or advancing, or fighting, is so subversive of all discipline, of all proper subordination, and all proper sense of responsibility, that we confess we cannot understand how any intelligent friends of the Government, in Congress or out of it, can possibly countenance it.

We are not advocates of Gen. Meade or any other General. We acknowledge no test of military ability except the result of campaigns. But we protest strongly against having this officer called to answer to Gens. Sickles and Doubleday, or anybody else who serves under him, for any order he gave at Gettysburgh, or anywhere else. It is universally acknowledged that there is nothing more fatal to the usefulness of an army, than the prevalence amongst subordinates of the habit of criticising the plans of their chief. It has already worked terrible mischief in this Army of the Potomac, and has had much to do with its various failures. But there can be no better way of fostering and developing this habit than making the charges, which are the natural fruit of criticism, the subject of Governmental investigation. It inevitably converts Corps and Division Generals into knots of intriguers and malcontents; destroys all unity of action, makes every battle an experiment performed by unwilling hands; and deprives the Commander-in-Chief of that confidence in those around him which is the first condition of success.

The military experience of all the great military nations proves conclusively that it is better, on the whole, that a General should commit fifty blunders, than that those serving under him should be allowed for one moment to imagine that it is any part of their business to oversee him, or set him right. If, therefore, Gen. Meade had wanted to retreat fifty miles from Gettysburgh, instead of seventeen, as is alleged, and had given an order for that purpose, it would perhaps have been a very unfortunate thing; but—we say it with all the respect due to two very brave soldiers—it was not the business of either Gen. Sickles or Gen. Doubleday to correct or to criticise it. Their business was simply and solely to obey it; and Congress would serve the country and the army far more by letting it pass than by citing Gen. Meade to account for it. He did not retreat; the battle of Gettysburgh was fought and won, and he has since then, by his conduct in Virginia, given decided proofs of a high order of talent. We know that he is the only General who has commanded on the Potomac, so far, whom Gen. Lee has not outmanœuvered. It is in the highest degree absurd to arraign him for having ordered a retreat, after the first day's fighting at Gettysburgh, unless somebody is able to say what would have happened if he had retreated. Until we can find this out, it is about as sensible to try him for having intended to retire, as it would be to try him for not having advanced further. The fact that a victory is won in a particular place, is not legal or any kind of proof that it would have been a crime to have fought anywhere else, and by any body of military men whose brains were not muddled by politics, it would be considered very ridiculous. We submit that we have had enough of this folly. Pope's campaign was converted into a horrible butchery because Mr. Fitz-John Porter took it into his head that he was bound to correct Pope's strategy. Burnside's campaign was similarly marred, by his officers undertaking to carry their orders to Washington and hold a caucus over them before obeying them; and we greatly fear we shall see Meade sacrificed during the coming campaign to the baneful and mischievous delusion that Generals of Division are congressional inspectors of strategy, charged with the task of detecting and exposing the blunders and shortcomings of their commanding officer.

Diplomacy of the Chesapeake Case.—There has been some discussion in the British Parliament concerning the violation of British sovereignty in the pursuit of the Chesapeake pirates into a British Colonial harbor by an American gunboat. Mr. Layard, in behalf of Her Majesty's Government, produced a letter addressed to Lord Lyons by Secretary Seward, as soon as the facts had reached him, and long before the demand of the British Government for redress had reached this country. Mr. Seward acknowledges that there was a "direct violation of the sovereignty of Her Majesty," in the case referred to, by the officers of the gunboat Ella & Annie, which acts "the President disapproves and regrets," and though "the President has reason to believe that the proceedings thus disapproved were taken by the officers concerned under the influence of a patriotic and commendable zeal, yet he has "directed that they shall be censured for this violation, and he will take such other means as may be necessary to prevent a recurrence of the grievance complained of." Mr. Seward closes by announcing that he is "fully determined to make all the amends that are due to Great Britain in the premises." To these statements Earl Russell promptly responded that "Her Majesty's Government accept that apology in the same spirit in which it has been offered, and are truly glad that the matter has been settled in a manner honorable to both parties, and calculated to improve the friendly relations which Her Majesty's Government are always anxious to maintain with the Government of the United States."

Vote for the Amendment.

Every loyal man should make it his duty to deposit a ballot to-day for the civil rights of the soldier who is saving our civil structure from ruin. The very statement of the necessity seems a paradox. It is absurd enough on its face that we here at home should be called upon to give our fellow-citizens, who are defending the flag with their lives, leave to exercise the right without which the flag would be worthless. Surely, if any class of our people have a stronger claim than any other to a voice in the Government, it is they who are beating down the rebels against the Government. If there be any difference, the citizen in the camp and the field has a better right to the franchise than the citizen in the counting-house or the work-shop; for his services to the country are indisputably greater.

Yet, we who are here behind, are seriously asked to-day whether we will allow those who have gone into the breach the same rights, as freemen, that we enjoy. We are obliged to meet that question somehow—either by a just and manly assent, or by a sordid refusal; or by an indifference in failing to say yea or nay, which involves a selfishness hardly less discreditable. They, who are opposed to the cause for which the soldier is fighting may, consistently enough with their treasonable bent, oppose his access to the ballot-box. They who have no concern in this struggle, caring for nothing but their private pelf can, consistently enough, keep aloof, and take no notice of to-day's issue. But loyal men are untrue to their loyal name if they do not give the loyal soldier their united support to-day, in a matter which vitally concerns his highest rights as an American citizen. They can neither vote against the soldier or fail to vote at all, without the grossest ingratitude—we may say, indeed, without a positive betrayal of the cause which they profess to have at heart; for if the loyal soldier has rights, the loyal cause surely has an interest in their maintenance.

We trust that there will be a general rally of all true men to-day throughout the State to vindicate the soldier's civil rights. The demonstration in his favor cannot be too emphatic. It will carry home to him, better than almost anything else could, the conviction that the great heart of the people yet beats thoroughly in sympathy with his own, and will inspire him with renewed ardor for the defence of that flag whose chief glory is that it equally protects the rights of all. Vote strong for the soldier, and he will fight all the stronger for you.

Metropolitan Sanitary Fair.

Contributors should send in their donations of merchandise at once. As the last week for preparation draws near, the work of the committees increases, and it will be utterly impossible to arrange and classify this vast quantity of articles, if they are not received seasonably. An agent is now in waiting daily at the building, in Fourteenth-street, near Sixth-avenue, (formerly Palace Garden,) from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. The express wagons will call and deliver the goods free of expense to the donors when so desired. Do not wait for the last week, else it will be practically impossible to arrange and classify the goods and prepare the printed list. In this connection, it may be mentioned that the Committee on Newspapers will issue, on the 28th of March, a daily journal of twelve pages; and among interesting matter pertaining to the Fair, will be a correct list of contributors and of the articles contributed, with the valuation of the same. It is important that this list should be prepared, as far as may be, before the Fair opens. Hence contributors will aid the management materially by not delaying to send in their goods.

The Ladies Association have decided upon the following prices for admission to the Fair: Season Tickets, $5—to cover admission to all parts of the Fair and at all times, except upon the opening night. Tickets for the opening night $2, including Art Gallery &c.; First Day, Tuesday, March 29, for exhibition only, $2. Second day, Wednesday, March 30, $1—first day of sales. Third, fourth and fifth days, sales, 50 cents. Admission to Art Gallery and special exhibitions, 25 cents each, except on opening night.

The prices for the second week will not be determined upon until the Fair opens.

Amusements.

Academy of Music.—Verdi's always acceptable opera of "Ernani" was played here last night to a fair audience. The cast was excellent, equal in some respects to that famous one which made the opera so popular when it was played some years ago bp the Havana troupe. Mr. Maretzek's male artists are admirable in this young and vigorous kind of music; indeed the trio (Mazzoleni, Bellini & Biachi) is probably as good as any that can be found in the present day. Madame Medori sang with dramatic fervor, and was heard to advantage in the many tumultuous pieces with which the opera abounds. The whole performance was in fact a decided success, and might be repeated on the next opera night to the satisfaction of the public and the subscribers.

To-night Gounod's opera of "Faust" will be given, with the original cast—Miss Kellogg being sufficiently restored to resume the rôle of Margherita.

The Hippotheatron.—The wonderful performing dogs and monkeys, in conjunction with the fine equestrian company, have attracted crowded houses throughout the past week—the matinées being as fully attended as the evening performances. Hundreds of ladies and children were disappointed in obtaining admission to the matinées on Saturday. Those wonderfully amusing animals, the dogs and monkeys, have been engaged for one week more, and will appear every afternoon and evening, in conjuction with the full equestrian company every afternoon and evening. There is also an entire change of programme. A new spectacular scene will be introduced, entitled "Harvest House" illustrative of rural life in England, concluding with a real steeple chase, in which the entire company and stud of horses will appear. A new act, "Don Juan on Horseback," chased by the demons, will be given by Mr. R. Hemmings. Madame Jeannette Ellsler, a most graceful artist, will appear on the tight rope, as also the famous monkey, Blondin.

"Political Infidelity."—The concluding lecture of the Women's Loyal League Course will be delivered to-night, at the Cooper Institute, by Mr. George William Curtis. "Political Infidelity" is announced as the subject, and it is sure to be discussed in a thorough and eloquent manner.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE N. Y. TIMES

Washington, Monday, March 7.

The Sub-Committee on Amendments to the Banking Law, to-day, sent in their report to the Ways and Means Committee. Most of the amendments suggested by the Comptroller of the Currency were adopted. The clause in the original bill requiring banks to be numbered, has been stricken out in the amended bill, which also allows old established banks desirous of participating in the benefits conferred by act, to retain their original names. The bill will be reported in a few days.

INCREASING SOLDIERS PAY.

No conclusion was reached to-day by the House Military Committee on the question of increasing soldiers pay. The matter was postponed until next Monday, when a bill will probably be reported increasing the pay to eighteen or twenty dollars per month.

GEN. MEADE AND THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURGH.

Gens. Pleasonton and Birney were examined before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, today, in relation to the battle of Gettysburgh. Their evidence, especially that of Gen. Birney, was very damaging to Gen. Meade. Among other things they stated that there was nothing to have prevented our forces from pursuing the rebels the day after the battle, and utterly routing and destroying Lee's whole army. Some new facts were also elicited respecting councils of war held at that time, and what was proposed to be done, but which propositions were overruled by Meade.

THE NEW REVENUE BILL.

The Ways and Means Committee are engaged in perfecting the new Internal Revenue and Tariff Bills. The committee have resolved to increase the tax on all articles that can stand it, so as to bring up the revenue to the estimates of the Secretary of the Treasury. A proposition was submitted to the committee to-day to place an additional tax of one dollar on whisky, and one dollar per pound on tobacco, and to tax other articles in proportion.

AN EXAMINING BOARD.

The Senate bill, providing for the appointment of a board of officers before whom all Quartermasters, Commissaries and Paymasters are to appear, and their qualifications inquired into, was considered today in the Military Committee. The bill is very defective, and will be amended by the House Committee.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, Tuesday, March 7.

THE REPORTED SAFETY OF COL. DAHLGREN.

It is understood that subsequent dispatches received here throw doubt upon the correctness of the information of the arrival of Col. Dahlgren in our lines at Fortress Monroe. Nothing official, however, can be learned of it. A Baltimore dispatch says that Col. Dahlgren is safe at Fortress Monroe.

THE PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY CHASE.

A recent correspondence between the President and the Secretary of the Treasury has given occasion to some telegrams unjust to both. Pains have been taken to ascertain the truth, and there is the highest authority for saying that neither letter contained more than a frank explanation of their respective positions, and that nothing in them evinced the slightest abatement of mutual respect and confidence.

THE KILPATRICK RAID.

Col. Streight and Edward P. Roe arrived from Fortress Monroe to-day. The latter is Chaplain of the New-York Harris Light Cavalry, and accompanied the recent expedition as a volunteer aid, in Gen. Kilpatrick's Staff. He had an interview this afternoon with the President, who desired to make special inquiries in relation to the raid, which is spoken of by gentlemen in high position as characterized by boldness, daring and gallantry, and as evincing a commendable spirit of military ambition; and it is known that the President shares in this opinion.

GEN. SHERMAN.

Nothing official has recently been received concerning Gen. Sherman's expedition.

APPOINTMENTS.

James S. Emory has been appointed District Attorney for Kansas, and Abel Bennett Agent for the Kickapoo Indians in that State.

TAMMANY AND THE ARMY.

Grand War Meeting at Tammany Hall in Behalf of the Second Army Corps—Great Enthusiasm Manifested—Speeches by Major-Gen. Hancock, Gen. Thomas F. Meagher, James T. Brady, and Others.

Last evening a grand war meeting was held at Tammany Hall, for the purpose of filling up the ranks of the famous Second Corps, who at Gettysburgh so greatly distinguished themselves, and who, by their bravery in that and numerous other engagements, have won so proud a position and name in the history of the war. Long before the hour of opening the hall was crowded with an assemblage of enthusiastic citizens, such as has not been seen before for a long, long time. An excellent band furnished patriotic music. Shortly after 8 o'clock Hon. Elijah F. Purdy appeared on the platform, followed by Gens. Hancock, Meagher, Schurz and Viele, Jas. T. Brady, Col. Bliss, and a number of other distinguished gentlemen.

On motion, Hon. Elijah F. Purdy took the Chair. He thanked the assemblage for their compliment, and stating the purpose of the meeting, introduced Maj.-Gen. Hancock.

The General was received with enthusiastic cheers. He said he felt highly honored by an invitation to address so many citizens in the ancient Temple of Democracy. They had not assembled to talk politics or to discuss the manner of putting down the rebellion. That could only be done by blows. All were interested in the success of the Government in putting down the rebellion. It was only by overthrowing the rebels that the highest degree of liberty could be attained. The women of our land, who had always a high appreciation of manhood, would appreciate our struggles to sustain our cause. When in the field he had the honor of commanding fifty regiments. Thirteen of them were from New-York. There was room in his corps for every nationality. The General spoke of the Irish Brigade as among the number of those he had led on the field of battle; also the Tammany Regiment. (The mention of the names elicited loud applause.) He said now was the time to enter the service. There was room for all. The reënlisted veterans want assistance. The draft might be postponed; but if enlistments were not prompt, it would surely be enforced. The General's speech was received with enthusiastic cheers.

The following letter from Maj.-Gen. Dix was read:

New-York City, March 7, 1864.

Theodore Rosevelt, Esq.:

Dear Sir: I regret exceedingly that I am unable to attend the meeting to be held at Tammany Hall to-night, to aid in filling up Gen. Hancock's Corps, and enable that gallant officer to take the field, and earn new honor for himself and his command.

It would be particularly gratifying to me to participate in the proceedings of a war meeting at Tammany Hall, whose patriotic services have always been heard in seasons of public adversity and peril, sustaining the cause of the country, and cheering on those who were perilling their lives in its defence. It is right that its venerable halls should reëcho now to the same declarations of devotion to the country, when the existence of the Government is endangered by treason and reckless violence. Much as we desire peace, it is manifest that it can only be secured by a vigorous and persevering prosecution of the war, until its authors are expelled from the country which they have devastated and dishonored.

I am, very truly, yours,

JOHN A. DIX.

Gen. Meagher was next introduced. He said that he felt sorry that he had not had the honor of participating in the efforts made to fill up the Second Army Corps. He delivered a glowing eulogy on the services of the different regiments under command of Gen. Hancock. He did not wish to be considered as speaking in disparagement of other brave soldiers. All had done nobly. All were fighting for our flag—our Government—our nation. He closed with an urgent appeal to sustain the object of the meeting.

Gen. Schurz then spoke. He said it was the first time he had addressed a public meeting in two years, but he was glad of the opportunity to say a word for the gallant Second Corps and his old friend and companion in arms, Gen. Hancock. [Applause.] He had witnessed the first grand burst of enthusiasm when the President first called for troops; but that had passed over, only that we might settle down to the stern determination to spare neither men nor money to crush this rebellion. He was followed by Gen. Viele, who said he wanted to raise his voice to indorse Gen. Hancock and to ask New-York to give him its aid and fill up his thinned ranks. [Cries of "We will, we will."] He thought that even the eloquence of Meagher and Brady were scarcely needed when they could look upon the walls and see the beautiful banners which so truthfully tell of the hard marches, bloody fights and great victories gained by those whom we had already sent to the field.

Mr. James T. Brady was then introduced, and was received with great cheers. He spoke of the First Tammany Regiment, of its commander, Wm. D. Kennedy, and of Major Cavanagh—two brave spirits, a credit to any country. [Applause.] He spoke of the great victories we had gained—of New-Orleans, Vicksburgh and the possession of the Mississippi River, and promised that, by the blessing of God, we should by the Fourth of July next add Atlanta and other important captures to the list. He spoke bitterly of the sympathizers with the rebels whom we had at the North, and paid a glowing tribute to the gallant Second Corps, and the entire Army of the United States. His speech was frequently interrupted with cheers.

At its close the audience gave hearty cheers for Gen. McClellan, Gen. Hancock, and The Army of the Potomac, and adjourned.

REBEL RAID ON CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Capture of a Tug and a Steamer—Destruction of a Telegraph Cable and Station at Cherrystone Point.

From the Baltimore Sun, March 7.

A daring and successful expedition by a band of rebels took place at an early hour on Saturday morning last, the result of which was food for much speculation by citizens of Baltimore yesterday. The scene of the expedition was Cherrystone Creek, eastern shore of Virginia. The facts of the daring raid are as follows: The steamer Iolas, Capt. Webster, and steam transport Titan were lying in the above-named creek (just off Cherrystone Point,) about 4 o'clock Saturday morning, when the officers and crew of both vessels were awakened from sleep to find themselves under arrest and their vessels in possession of armed men, who announced themselves as Confederates, and that they had seized the vessels in the name of the Confederate States of America. There was no alternative for the officers and crew but to surrender.

The Iolas is a medium sized steamer, and is owned by Capt. Webster, who has been engaged from time to time in collecting produce, &c., from the Eastern and Western Shore Counties of Virginia, and carrying it to Fortress Monroe for the use of sutlers, and at intervals his steamer would be specially chartered for the use of the Government. Capt. Webster is a Baltimorean. He was compelled to give up $1,100 in money, besides other valuables. The engineer of the vessel informed the rebels that it would take four hours for them to get up steam, and they concluded to bond the Iolas, which they did for $30,000. They released Capt. Webster and his crew, except three colored men, on parole. They then put their canoes, three in number, on board the steamer Titan, and placed the officers and crew of that vessel, together with the three colored men from the Iolas, under surveillance, and proceeded up the bay into the Rappahannock river. Nothing of any consequence was taken from the Iolas. The Titan was loaded with commissary stores, and had put into Cherrystone Point on Friday night, on account of stress of weather. The vessel was valued at $40,000 and the cargo at $50,000.

The most important part of the damage sustained from the expedition was from their destruction of the telegraph station at Cherrystone Point, and the destruction of the submarine telegraph cable, running from that point to Fortress Monroe, and which was the only means of telegraphic communication between Fortress Monroe, Baltimore and Washington. How far out from the point the cable is destroyed could not be ascertained, as a portion of the rebels were at work at this destruction whilst the remainder were seizing the steamers. The light-house near Cherrystone Point was also thought to be destroyed by them, but this latter statement has received no official confirmation.

The rebels numbered about thirty men, and were under the command of Capt. Fitzhugh and Capt. Taylor Wood (nephew of Gen. Zachary Taylor,) both of the rebel navy. Gen. Lockwood received dispatches from the Secretary of War, announcing the fact of the destruction of the submarine cable, and also that the work of repair would be at once commenced. It was also stated that several gunboats had left Fortress Monroe for the Rappahannock River, for the purpose of recapturing or destroying the steamer Titan. At a late hour last evening nothing had been heard from them. The scene where the above-mentioned raid took place is now in Gen. Butler's department.

Relief for East Tennessee.

The following correspondence explains itself:

New-York, Saturday, Feb. 20, 1864.

Hon. N. G. Taylor, former Representative from East Tennessee.

Dear Sir—The undersigned having been made aware of the important mission with which you are charged under the approbation of the Governor of Tennessee, namely—the relief of the suffering Union men of that State, are desirous that you should make a statement of your mission and of the condition of that loyal but unfortunate population, to the people of this City, to the end that they may be enabled to participate in the wide movement which is now making to alleviate their sufferings.

They, therefore, earnestly desire that you will name a day when it will be convenient for you to address a public meeting to be held in New-York for this purpose.

Respectfully your obedient servants,
W. E. Dodge,
Jonathan Sturges,
William T. Blodgett,
Peter Cooper,
George Opdyke,
Charles Butler,
William K. Strong,

Robt. B. Roosevelt,
Hiram Walbridge,
George Griswold,
John C. Green,
Morris Ketchum,
S. B. Chittenden,
John Austin Stevens, Jr.

New-York, Monday, March 7, 1864.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to own receipt of your kindly letter of Feb. 20, inviting me to name an evening upon which I may address the people of the City of New-York upon the unhappy condition and suffering of the Union men of East Tennessee, and solicit from your often-taxed but always generous liberality some aid and relief to my unfortunate neighbors and friends in that section.

I have just returned from a tour through the Eastern States, where I have been received with the utmost kindness, and where my efforts have met with success.

I will have the honor of addressing the citizens of New-York Thursday evening next, 10th inst., if agreeable to you.

Thanking you in the name of my countrymen for your kindness, I have the honor to remain

Your obedient servant, N. G. TAYLOR.

Messrs. W. E. Dodge, Jonathan Sturges, William T. Blodgett, Peter Cooper, George Opdyke and others.

Suspension of the Draft.

The orders for the draft to take place on next Thursday, the 10th inst., have been suspended, for what time is not known. There will be no necessity for any further notifications on the subject so far as this City is concerned. Recruits are being rapidly procured, and our quota is pretty nearly filled. The following is the order received by Gen. Hays suspending the draft:

War Department, Washington,
March 4, 1864.

To Gen. Hays:

Orders requiring draft on 10th are suspended. A subsequent day for commencing the draft will be announced in time to make all necessary preparation. Notify the Governor.

JAMES B. FRY.

The Board of Managers of the Asylum for Colored Orphans notice that in the Annual Report of the Commissioners of Public Charities reference is made to the fact that thanks had not been rendered for past services. The omission was by no means intentional; but the plans which the Board devised for that purpose they unfortunately neglected to execute. The Board, therefore, take the earliest opportunity for correcting the error, by returning sincere thanks. The Commissioners on the 17th of July, received all our children at Blackwell's Island, and kept them there for three months—thus standing by them and us in times of adversity as they have ever done in those of prosperity. The amount annually received from the Commissioners for the board of children is always credited in our Treasurer's Report, and this year will be found to be the third term.

Blooded Horses and the Fair.

Messrs. Bonner, Vanderbilt and Baker have responded to the suggestion made by the Leader that they should have a trial of speed between their splendid horses, for the benefit of the Sanitary Fair. Messrs. Vanderbilt and Baker have consented to do so if Mr. Bonner would, but the latter declines, as it has been a settled purpose with him not to race his horses for any purpose whatsoever. He donates to the Fair, though, Lady Woodruff conditioned that she be sold at auction. The mare trots in 2:27, and Mr. Bonner offers $5,000 for any horse that can beat this time two seconds. The gift of the "Lady" is a munificent one. Whether Messrs. Vanderbilt and Baker will have a trial of speed is not yet known. That one would create great interest and result in a handsome contribution to the Fair, there is no doubt.

Arrivals in the City.

Hon. Wm. Kelly, Rhinebeck; Col. S. Meyer, Indiana; T. H. Eastman, U. S. Navy; H. Sanford, Bridgeport, Conn.; E. Ayres, Chicago; H. G. Wilder, Boston, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Col. C. M. Russell, Maryland; M. W. McEntire and T. C. Marsten, U. S. Navy; F. N. Hamlin, Buffalo; H. W. Ellsworth, North Carolina; E. A. Hopkins and wife, Buenos Ayres, are at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Col. C. F. Wells, Pennsylvania; H. H. Bell, U. S. Navy, and Dr. R. H. Hodsen, (near Knoxville,) Tennessee, are at the Astor House.

Mrs. Gen. Van Rensselaer, Albany; Rudolf Yunz, London; and Jas. J. Day, Stonington; are at the New-York Hotel.

Capt. Kennedy, of the steamer City of New-York, is at the Everett House.

The influx of Western, Southern, and Border States merchants in the City during the last fortnight, as has been partly visible by the over-crowded state of the hotels, bids fair for larger trade transactions during this spring, than any previous one since the breaking out of the rebellion.

FROM ALBANY.

The National Credit—Canal Claims—The Pawners' Relief Association.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

ALBANY, Monday, March 7.

A proposition, involving the question of national credit, was brought up in the Senate this morning, and gave occasion for an interesting debate. Senator BELL offered a resolution that as State stocks of this State were so issued as to be made negotiable and payable in this State, there shall be no difference made in paying principle and interest of such debts, between domestic and foreign holders. Senator SMITH moved to amend by adding and the same shall be paid in coin. This proposed amendment was lost. Senator FOLGER then offered an amendment providing that the interest accruing on so much of the State debt as on the first day of March, 1863, was held by persons residing out of the United States, and is still held by persons residing out of the United States, shall be paid in gold or its equivalent. Senator FOLGER sustained this proposition by urging that political and financial convulsions in any country could not be held to affect the international market so as to favor that country. The general market of the world was in a higher and calmer sphere than to be legitimately affected, as to its estimate of values, by any merely local convulsion. Strict integrity on the part of the State required that the measure which he had proposed substantially, should be adopted. Senator COOK opposes the amendment, on the ground that the foreign holder when purchasing State Stocks knew upon what they were based, and took the risks of depreciation of currency, &c., as a part of the bargain. If the proposition under consideration were to be entertained at all, it should go further back, to the date of the fall of Fort Sumter. The recognition of the principle involved should also be extended so as to include the payment on mortgages here at home, as well as the payment on foreign obligations; and for the same reason in both cases. Senator FOLGER held that there was a very important difference between the holder of a mortgage here at home and the one residing in a foreign country, to whom the State owes a debt. The first may receive payment in greenbacks, because he can use them as legal tender, which the other cannot do in his own country. Senator ANDREWS was not prepared to repudiate to any extent State obligations. He held that the depreciation of our currency should not affect obligations to foreigners. They could not use greenbacks to pay debts or for investments.

The question involved in the above discussion was deemed too important to be hastily considered, and at the suggestion of several Senators further discussion of it was postponed, and the amendment was made the special order for Wednesday next.

One of the schemes of a general character, devised for the settlement of canal claims, was disposed of in the Assembly this morning. The enacting clause was stricken out of the bill constituting the Canal Appraisers a Board to hear such claims. It has all along been urged against this bill that its passage would revive a vast number of claims that have failed to gain a recognition from the Legislature. Members expressed the opinion that its passage would cost the State at least half a million of dollars, and the House, by a large majority, voted to kill the bill.

A good deal of time was spent in considering in the Assembly the bill providing for the incorporation of the Pawners' Relief Association of New-York. The bill was finally ordered to third reading, but not until its various provisions had been contested at length in Committee of the Whole. Some members were confident that they saw in it iniquitous designs, and an intention to defraud the public. The members from New-York, however, had, in the opinion of the House, the best of the argument, for opportunity had been given to scrutinize the bill, and say all that could be said against it. An emphatic vote was given in its favor.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

BILLS NOTICED.

Bill for the completion of the Battery extension.

Mr. JULIAN introduced a bill for the better regulation of Manhattan-square.

The bill relating to the Trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New-York, was read and passed.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. BELL called up the concurrent resolutions against making any distinction as to the currency in which the interest and principal shall be paid to domestic and foreign holders of State bonds.

Mr. SMITH moved to amend, that both classes be paid in gold. Lost—5 to 17.

Mr. FOLGER moved to amend, to pay gold only on such State stock as was held by foreigners prior to March 1, 1863.

A debate ensued, in which Messrs. BELL, HAVENS and COOK argued against, and Messrs. FOLGER, SHAFER and ANDREWS in favor of the amendment, when the resolution was made the special order for Wednesday.

On motion of Mr. FOLGER, the Senate adopted a resolution requesting the Assembly to return the Lebanon Spring Railroad bill, certain Senators apprehending that its provisions cover the Harlem Railroad Broadway grant.

The bill enabling husband and wife to act as witnesses for and against each other, was debated at length and ordered to a third reading.

Adjourned.

Municipal Election—Great Union Triumph.

PORTLAND, Me., Monday, March 7.

JACOB MCLELLAN, the Union candidate, is elected Mayor of this city over JOHN B. CARROLL, by a majority of 1,136, against a majority last year of 805 for the same candidate, being a Union gain of 335. The vote stands, MCLELLAN, 1,941; CARROLL, 805; Scattering, 6. Last year the vote stood, MCLELLAN, 2,166; CARROLL, 1,950; Scattering 21.

All the wards have gone Union, electing every Alderman, Councilman and subordinate officers.

From Mobile.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, March 7.

Capt. HOPKINS, well known here before the war as a river Captain, arrived on Saturday from Mobile, 18th ult. He says there were but 8,000 troops in Mobile, and, though the fortifications in front of the city were good, they could be carried by a large force. Gen. SHERMAN's movement frightened the people terribly, but a desperate resistance would have been made had he attacked the city. Every male there between 16 and 55 years, was a well-drilled soldier.

There is no distress in the South, but the people are willing to accept peace on almost any terms. The leaders, however, are determined to fight to the last.

Of the gunboats in Mobile Bay four are iron-clad, the Tennessee being the most formidable.

Gens. PEMBERTON and LOVELL were at Columbia, relieved. Gen. PRICE had not gone to Mexico, but was still in command of his Missourians in Arkansas.

The Bohemian Breaking Up.

PORTLAND, Monday, March 7.

The Bohemian is fast breaking up; part of her stern, main and mizzen masts, part of her deck, a quantity of goods, and some bodies have come ashore.

EXPLORATIVE BLEEDING.—WHEN MEDical men find a man very sick, but cannot tell what the matter is, they bleed the patient, and by that means profess to ascertain where the seat of the disease is. Why not practice explorative purgation instead? It is very difficult to recover from the effects of loss of blood, but from the effect of four or six Brandreth's pills you derive renewed life and health. If Brandreth's pills have benefitted five hundred persons and injured none, then it is five hundred to one that they will produce good results. So, instead of explorative bleeding, use that medicine which not only explores and searches the inmost recesses of the body, but finds out and removes the disease.

See B. Brandreth is on the Government stamp, to counterfeit which is felony!

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

No. 420 SIXTH-AV., NEW-YORK, Dec. 2, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor in stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain, in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

READ!

I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. That frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I may, indeed, say that I feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is in my opinion impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 126th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 29, 1863.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

NEW-YORK, March 30, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

PLANTATION BITTERS,

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private United States stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the United States law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties refilling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

CHICAGO AND GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.
FOR $2,000,000.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS OPENED WITH
Messrs. SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, Bankers,
No. 21 Nassau-st., New-York.

The Chicago and Great Eastern Railway Company now offer for sale one million one hundred thousand dollars of their first mortgage bonds, in sums of one thousand dollars each, maturing in thirty years, bearing interest at the rate of Seven per cent. per annum, payable in the City of New-York, on the first days of April and October, in each year.

These bonds are secured by a first and only Mortgage on the property, income and franchises of the Railway Company, executed to Frederick Schuchardt and Henry Morgan, of the City of New-York, Trustees.

The remaining nine hundred thousand dollars of the Bonds are set apart and remain in the hands of the said Trustees, for the purpose of being exchanged for the indebtedness of the Chicago and Cincinnati Railroad Company, running from La Crosse to Logansport; this effected, the $2,000,000 will form a First and only Mortgage on a line of road 150 miles in length, extending from Chicago to Logansport, where it connects with the Cincinnati and Chicago Air-line Railroad, forming the shortest line by 40 miles, between Chicago and Cincinnati, and by 36 miles the shortest line between Louisville and Chicago.

It will also open, in connection with roads now in operation, entirely new and very direct lines from Chicago to New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and all Eastern cities. The distance between Chicago and New-York by this route being shorter than by either of the existing lines via Dunkirk or Buffalo.

The road is now under contract, and the most strenuous efforts are being made to have it open for traffic during the Summer of 1864.

The interest on the Bonds maturing during the progress of the work has been provided for, and will remain on deposit with the Bankers of the Company, Messrs SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, No. 21 Nassau-st., to whom the Company refer for further particulars, and where subscription books for this loan have been opened.

PROPOSALS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHTHOUSE BOARD, Feb. 15, 1864.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, the 19th day of March, 1864, for supplying the Lighthouse Establishment with fifteen thousand gallons of the best quality pure Winter strained lard oil, and thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure Winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the Government supply-vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Lighthouse Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity each of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

The lard oil will be delivered at Boston, Mass., for special inspection.

Any one of the lots of sperm oil, or all of them, may be delivered at New-York, New-London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New-Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz.:

LOT No. 1.—Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 15th day of April, 1864, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

LOT No. 2.—Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of May, 1864, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

LOT No. 3.—Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1864, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

LOT No. 4.—Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of August, 1864, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure Winter strained or bagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz.: specific gravity, burning the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a Custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Fahrenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Lighthouse Board, under the authority of the department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kinds or descriptions of oils than those specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States District Judge, Attorney, Navy Agent, or Collector of the Customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that, in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for oil for lighthouses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Lighthouse Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Lighthouse Board,
W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR FORAGE!

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON DEPOT, Dec. 8, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited by the undersigned for supplying the United States Quartermaster's Department, at Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Alexandria and Fort Monroe, Va., or either of these places, with Hay, Corn, Oats and Straw.

Bids will be received for the delivery of 5,000 bushels of corn or oats, and 50 tons of hay or straw, and upward.

Bidders must state at which of the above-named points they propose to make deliveries, and the rates at which they will make deliveries thereat, the quantity of each article proposed to be delivered, the time when said deliveries shall be commenced, and when to be completed.

The price must be written out in words on the bids.

Corn to be put up in good stout sacks, of about two bushels each. Oats in like sacks, of about three bushels each. The sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the Government. The hay and straw to be securely baled.

The particular kind or description of oats, corn, hay or straw, proposed to be delivered must be stated in the proposals.

All the articles offered under the bids herein invited, will be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector before being accepted.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidder, as the interest of the Government may require, and payment will be made when the whole amount contracted for shall have been delivered and accepted.

The bidder will be required to accompany his proposal with a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case his bid is accepted, he or they will, within ten days thereafter, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to deliver the forage proposed in conformity with the terms of this advertisement; and in case the said bidder should fail to enter into the contract, they to make good the difference between the offer of said bidder and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District-Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All bidders will be duly notified of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals.

The full name and Post-office address of each bidder must be legibly written in the proposal.

Proposals must be addressed to Brigadier-General D. H. Rucker, Chief Depot Quartermaster, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Forage."

Bonds, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder or bidders upon signing the contract.

Blank forms of bids, guarantees, and bonds, may be obtained upon application at this office.

MEDICAL.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.
Sir JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS!
Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well-known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution. To married ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

For full particulars get a pamphlet, free, of the agent.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps inclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle containing over 50 pills by return mail.

Sold by all druggists.
JOB MOSES, No. 27 Cortlandt-st., New-York,
Sole United States Agent.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. DR. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris, and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health call: it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Call, send, or write.

SPEEDY RELIEF AND SURE CURE GUARANTEED.—Therefore, let no false delicacy prevent your immediate application to Dr. POWERS. Dr. POWERS, successfully consulted with Dr. WARD No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Veneriens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa, gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints, enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world. Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send or a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

CAUTION TO LADIES, SINGLE AND MARRIED.—Every woman truly a lady, has an aversion to call in or upon a physician, in respect to complaints peculiar to her sex. Besides the shock to her delicacy in consulting persons, most of whom know nothing of her ailments, she incurs worse than useless expense in buying injurious pills, drops, potions, &c. No lady need call upon the numerous doctors with whom to uselessly spend her means, as "The Married Womans' Private Medical Companion," price $1, by A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women, designed especially for the married or those about to be married, points out the mode of treatment to remove obstructions, irregularities, or her other ailments, (as mother or wife, with the causes and symptoms, and what best to do. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale at No. 1 Vesey-st. (Astor House,) and 18 Ann-st.; FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston.
Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR GOUT AND RHEUMATISM.
All sufferers from the above complaints, either of recent or long standing, are advised to use Blair's Gout and Rheumatic Pills. They can be relied upon as the most safe and effectual remedy ever offered to the public, and have been universally used in Europe for many years with the greatest success.

Prepared by PROUT & HARSANT, No. 229 Strand, London, England; and sold by their Agents, F. C. WELLS & CO., 115 Franklin-st., and by most Druggists.

Her Majesty's Commissioners have authorized the name and address of "Thomas Prout, No. 229 Strand, London," to be impressed upon the Government stamp affixed to each box of the genuine medicine.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st., New-York.

DR. WATSON, AN OLD AND EXPERIENCED PRACTITIONER, may be consulted, as heretofore, on all diseases of the sexual organs, which he treats without the use of dangerous or nauseous drugs, and without hindrance from business. Dr. Watson's work, the "Cause and Cure," is illustrated throughout by anatomical plates, and drawings of disease, colored from the life, by which any one may learn the nature of his complaint, and the mode of cure: a really practical and superior publication, invaluable especially to those who have debilitated themselves by early abuse, excess, or other causes. Price $1. Sold by MILLER & CO., Post-office 222½ Broadway, and by the Author, W. WATSON, M. D., 630 Broadway, next block above the Metropolitan Hotel. Consultations from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 160th edition of the valuable book, entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224, New-York City. For sale by H. RICHARDSON, at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) and 18 Ann st.; FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston.

DR. LEWIS' FEMALE MONTHLY TONIC is the only medicine married or single ladies can rely upon with safety and certainty for removing obstructions, suppressions, &c., from whatever cause. Ladies who desire to avail themselves of Dr. LEWIS' valuable, certain and safe method of removing obstructions, suppressions, &c., from whatever cause, without the use of medicines, can do so at one interview. Ladies from a distance can return the same day. Excellent rooms fitted up in style for accommodation of ladies.
A. LEWIS, M. D., Physician for Females,
No. 7 Beach-st., between Varick and West Broadway.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE—Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs, in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent, free of postage, to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

HUNDREDS UPON HUNDREDS HAVE ruined their health by using medicines containing calomel, or its kindred poisons. The unfortunate can rely on Dr. HUNTER'S RED DROPS. They contain nothing injurious, and never fail in performing a speedy and permanent cure in all cases of private diseases, no matter how obstinate the case may be. They never have, and never will fail to cure. Can be obtained at No. 3 Division-st., New-York City. Eight separate rooms; a private entrance. Price $1, or sent to any address on receipt of price.

DR. WARD'S MAGICAL INVIGORATORS, IN the form of Pills, will, in fifteen minutes after being taken, make the recipient as vigorous as if nature had never been retarded or debilitated. To the unmarried or single, in every physical exigency, this unrivaled medicine is earnestly recommended as a complete restorative of the nervous system where manhood has been impaired. Procured of Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st. Call or send for circulars.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in cases of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr. POWERS, 50 Lispenard-st., N. Y.

ON A NEW AND SUCCESSFUL METHOD FOR THE CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA AND ITS RESULTS. Fourth Edition. Intended for Popular Use. By C. D. HAMMOND, M.D., formerly Professor of Special Anatomy in the Syracuse Medical College, N. Y. Price $1. WARNER, Publisher, No. 1 Vesey-st., N. Y. The author may be consulted from 9 to 10, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings, at No. 31 East 27th-st.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY LADY.—DR. WARD'S Great Female Benefactor or Golden Regulating Pills. Infallible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and they will never disappoint the anxious patient. Office No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, where Dr. WARD can be consulted, confidentially, day and evening.

MRS. HAYWARD'S PULMON SYRUP—for catarrh, bronchitis and weak lungs, sold at No. 111 Nassau-st., Brooklyn.

HUNDREDS ARE RUINED BEYOND redemption in this life by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first: he has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has cured no less than fifty thousand cases. His remedies are mild, and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Dr. HUNTER is in constant attendance from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night, at his old office, No. 3 Division-st. Charges moderate, and a cure guaranteed. Separate rooms, so that the patient sees no one but the Doctor himself. His wonderful medical discovery, Dr. Hunter's Red Drops, cures certain diseases, when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effect of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, and possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. It is $1 a vial, with a medical work on Human Frailty, Nervous Debility, Early Indiscretion, and consultation gratis.

MEDICAL.

ADVICE TO MARRIED OR SINGLE LADIES, who require a safe and certain remedy for removing obstructions, from whatever cause. Can rely upon the celebrated INFALLIBLE FRENCH FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS, price $1 a box, to restore the monthly sickness in forty-eight hours, if of short standing; but obstinate cases, of long standing, may require No. 2, which are four degrees stronger than No. 1, and can never fail, are safe and healthy; price $5 a box. Sold at No. 127½ Liberty-st.; or sent by mail, with full instructions, by addressing Box 2,359 N.Y. Post-office.

DOCTOR HUNTER'S BOTANIC TINCTURE AND ROOT EXTRACT will restore manhood and the vigor of youth in five days. It will give health, strength and vigor to the most debilitated and shattered constitution. $1 a vial, with a medical book that treats of the evil effects of early abuse, loss of virile power and the effects of mercury. No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1834. Eight rooms and a private entrance.

DR. JOHNSON, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY be consulted with confidence on private diseases. Thirty years in one specialty enables him to guarantee speedy and permanent cures. N. B.—Those who may have been misled by quack advertisements, nostrums, &c., can call on Dr. J., with the certainty of a cure.

EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., EDITOR OF the SCALPEL, attends exclusively to operative surgery and the more obscure diseases of the pelvic viscera, hernia, hemorrhoids, varicocele and fistula. No. 42 5th-av. Officehours from 8 to 9, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings.

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'
GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East Fourteenth-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, N. Y.

UNITED PIANO-FORTE MAKERS,

NEW MUSIC.—"WHEN OLD FRIENDS WERE HERE."—A very beautiful and touching Song in B Flat:

When old friends were here,
In days that are flown,
How fond were the hands
Which oft clasped my own.
The pathways of life
Wore pleasure's sunny hue,
And voices were near,
With tones warm and true.

"SHE WAS ALL THE WORLD TO ME"—This is a sweet, flowing melody, in E Flat.

The above are the last two Songs of the late Stephen C. Foster. Price 25 cents each, mailed free. HORACE WATERS, Publisher, No. 481 Broadway, New-York.

THE METROPOLITAN FAIR.
FEBRUARY 7.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHILDREN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT appeal not only to dealers in articles of children's apparel, but also to the ladies of New-York and its vicinity. Will every one, not otherwise engaged in the Fair, send some one garment, not alone of the finest and most costly fabrics, but of plain, substantial material, as we desire to satisfy all tastes and purses. It requires many hands to supply all that will be wanted in this department during the Fair. Make, or employ others to make (thereby doing a double charity) any articles appertaining to the wardrobe of a child of three to twelve years of age.

Mrs. WM. B. ALLEN,
Mrs. A. T. HEWIT,
Mrs. T. HITCHCOCK,
Miss B. TILESTON,
Miss E. CONSTANT,

METROPOLITAN FAIR.

Contributions will be received and stored after the 22d inst., at the 22d Regiment Armory, in 14th-st., near 6th-av., and should be consigned to and marked "Metropolitan Fair." Mr. John M. Freeman, Agent, will receipt for the goods, and pay freight when goods are not sent by any of the Express Companies, who carry free of charge for this Association. Hours for receiving goods, from 10 o'clock, A. M., to 4 o'clock, P. M.

Contributors are requested to send with the goods memorandum stating character and value of the same.
C. E. DETMOLD,
Chairman of Committee on Organization, &c., &c.

BROOKLYN AND LONG ISLAND FAIR.

All articles belonging to the Fair remaining unsold, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 9th inst. (to-morrow,) from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock, at the Academy of Music.

Also, a house and lot on Atlantic-st., Brooklyn, given to the Fair by Messrs. Scranton & Co. Friends of the cause are respectfully invited.
BROOKLYN, March 7, 1864.

METROPOLITAN FAIR!

The Committee of Arrangements of the Metropolitan Fair respectfully request the various religious denominations, wishing to be represented at the Fair, to report themselves either as denominations or as separate churches, on or before the 11th inst., at No. 2 Great Jones-st., that the requisite space may be set apart for each.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE, APPOINTED on the part of the Fire Department for the Metropolitan Fair, beg leave to inform those who intend making donations in money through them for this great national object, that those authorized to receive contributions in the different companies, will be furnished with certificates from this Committee. Donations will also be received by either of the undersigned, who will duly acknowledge the same.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Monday, March 7.

A SCIENTIFIC MISSION TO EASTERN ASIA.

Mr. MORGAN, of New-York, presented a memorial from the American Geographical and Statistical Society, in favor of Surgeon McGowan's proposed commercial, industrial and scientific mission to Eastern Asia. Referred to the Committe on Foreign Affairs.

RAILROAD FACILITIES WITH WASHINGTON.

Messrs. WILSON, MORGAN and SUMNER presented numerous petitions for increased railroad and mail facilities between Boston, New-York and Philadelphia, which were referred to the Committee on Post-offices and Post-roads.

CONFISCATION.

Mr. FOOTE, of Vermont, (Union,) presented a petition from Eli Thayer, praying the passage of a law confiscating the lands of the rebels, and distributing them among freedmen. Referred to the Committee on Slavery and Freedmen.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Mr. CONNESS, of California, (Union,) introduced a bill to amend the act to aid in the construction of a railroad from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, passed July 1, 1862.

Referred to the Special Committee on the Pacific Railroad.

THE REPEAL OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.

On motion of Mr. SUMNER, of Massachusetts, (Union,) the bill repealing all acts for the rendition of fugitive slaves was made the special order for Wednesday next, at 12½ o'clock.

Mr. SHERMAN, of Ohio, (Union,) offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a quorum of the Senate consists of a majority of the Senators duly chosen and qualified.

Resolved, That if a majority of the Presidential electors, duly appointed and qualified, vote for one person, he is the President.

Resolved, That if the election of President devolves upon the House of Representatives, and the votes of a majority of the States represented in the House be cast for one person, he is the President.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary, and ordered to be printed.

INDIAN TREATIES.

The bill authorizing the President to negotiate a treaty with certain Indian tribes of Oregon was, on motion of Mr. NESMITH, called up and passed.

A LAKE SUPERIOR RAILROAD.

The Senate on motion of Mr. RAMSAY, of Illinois, (Union,) proceeded to the consideration of the bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad from St. Paul, Minnesota, to the head waters of Lake Superior.

Mr. HOWE, of Wisconsin, (Union,) opposed the bill at considerable length.

Messrs. RAMSAY and WILKINSON, Minnesota, and JOHNSON, of Maryland, supported the bill.

Mr. DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin, replied to the remarks of Mr. JOHNSON and defended his state from any narrow-minded policy against her sister State, Minnesota.

The Senate went into executive session at quarter past three o'clock and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, March 7.

CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTORY.

Several weeks ago a resolution was passed ordering fifteen hundred copies of "LANMAN'S Directory of Congress," at a copyright of two dollars a piece. This resolution was afterward repealed.

To-day Mr. SPAULDING, of Ohio, (Union,) offered a resolution to remove doubts which have risen as to the binding force and efficacy of either of those resolutions, and affirming in all particulars the one which heretofore passed, providing for the printing of the work, save only that the price shall be limited to one dollar a piece.

After an hour spent on this subject, the resolution was passed by 16 majority.

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) offered a resolution calling upon the President, if compatible with public interest, to inform the House what steps he has taken, or is about taking, for the exchange of prisoners, and that he communicate all the unpublished correspondence in relation to the said exchange.

Mr. DAWES, of Massachusetts, objected, and so the resolution lies over.

FOREIGN MAILS.

Mr. ALLEY, of Massachusetts, (Union,) from the Committee on Post-office and Post-roads, reported a bill for carrying the mails between the United States and foreign countries. It requires all steamers and sailing vessels to perform the service when so directed, and promptly to deliver the mails, for which they are to receive such reasonable compensation as may be allowed by law.

Mr. ALLEY explained the remaining provisions of the law, saying the committee thought the above was just and proper, inasmuch as these vessels received the protection of the United States at a vast expense.

The next section authorizes the Postmaster-General to make contracts for four years for the transportation of mail matter, other than letters, by the Pacific or Nicaragua route, provided the expenditure shall not exceed $160,000 per annum; and if in any case more than one company shall be engaged, the Postmaster-General shall determine the proportion to be paid to each. At the present time the department contracts for carrying the overland mails at a cost of one million of dollars—the newspaper mails, carried by sea, cost one hundred and sixty thousand dollars—this is contracted for by the Overland Mail Contractors. The department thought it would be better that the Government should itself contract immediately for the service, so that it might have direct control.

The fourth section provides that all mailable matter overland shall be subject to pre-paid letter postage, but not as held to exclude newspapers, one copy to each regular subscriber.

Vast amounts of mail matter are (Mr. ALLEY said) now sent overland which should go by sea. The Postmaster-General, by this bill, may enter into a contract not exceeding one year for carrying the mails in steamships between the United States and the Pacific and Gulf ports. The bill also legalizes the transportation of mails to and from New-Orleans. Pains and penalties are provided for violation of the provisions of the bill, which was passed.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

The House took up the Senate's amendments to the Deficiency Bill.

Mr. BROOKS, of New-York, (Dem.,) said that when this bill was originally reported from the Committee of Ways and Means it contained an appropriation of $4,180,000. When it passed the House the sum had been increased to $7,500,000. But to this the Senate added amendments to the extent of nearly $99,000,000, so that the appropriations had swollen to $106,000,000. At the commencement of the session the Secretary of War had not asked a single dollar for deficiencies, but now he demanded ninety-nine million dollars. In the course of four or five years, at this rate of increase, the burdens would be too heavy for any nation on earth to endure. For the fiscal year ending with June, 1864, including the payment of bounties, the expenditures for the War Department would be a thousand millions. He contrasted former war expenditures under this Government for the purpose of showing the appalling increase of the expenditures. His mind failed to fully comprehend the subject, for the figures confounded him, and it was beyond the power of arithmetic to understand the calculation or the principles on which it was founded. He regarded it as unjust that such an enormous debt should be left for posterity to pay, instead of making provision for its liquidation by taxation. In examining the estimate of thirty millions for the Quartermaster's Department, he said some of the transportation was for carrying soldiers to New-Hampshire, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, to execute the purpose of the party in power, in order to carry the elections. This money, he believed, was not for legitimate expenditures of war, not for the capture and overthrow of the rebel army, and to carry the Stars and Stripes to the capitol hill at Richmond, or to the forts of Mobile and Charleston, but to subdue the conservative power of these States. This he denounced with all his power and vigor. He appealed from the majority of this House to God Almighty to put His mark of reprobation on such wicked acts. He would not vote one dollar of these items until their objects were made clear.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) was glad the gentleman had taken this time to get before the country his campaign document—there was no better time for it. As to the appeal from the majority of this House to another tribunal, he (Mr. STEVENS) did not know that either party had standing in that court to try the issue. The gentleman's declaration not to vote for transportation was suited to the tactics of the other side, which would have no troops, and, if we had troops, would keep them out of the field. He (Mr. STEVENS) did not expect any help from the other side of the House. He and the gentleman from New-York were members of this branch of Congress and of the same party, and when a gentleman from Alabama, as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, reported extravagant appropriation bills the gentleman made just such a speech against extravagance as he did to-day. The speech fitted just as well at that time as it did now. But he (STEVENS) hoped the committee would at once proceed to consider the Senate's amendments, eighty in number. In explanation of the increase of appropriations for deficiencies, he said when the bill was first reported there was no call for 500,000 men. But when the call was made new estimates had to be made, which were presented to the Senate and House. If any of the items were improper, the House could vote them down. But the very idea that we ought to paralyze the arm of the Government, and starve our brave soldiers, might become the other side of the House, but would be disgraceful to patriots.

The item of $30,000 for medical attendance to contrabands having been read, debate arose, during which Mr. SMITH, of Kentucky, (Union,) said the South cared nothing for us, and would destroy both white and black, if necessary, to maintain their independence and overthrow our Government. For himself, speaking as a slaveholder, whose family as far back as he could trace were slaveholders, he would be ever ready to give aid and comfort to any slave escaping from his rebel master and make him a free man. The Government, if wanting means to put down the rebellion, was at liberty to take his horses, negroes, corn, or anything else. He would no more undertake to restore to Slavery those who had fled from their rebel masters, than he would cut off his right arm.

Mr. MALLORY, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) did not wish to be led into a humanitarian discussion. But white men, as well as black, were daily coming into our lines, and were entitled at least to a proportionate share of the Government's charity. He would not consign any class of people to starvation in this world, and perdition in the next. He repeated, what he had hitherto said in debate, that the negro was not fit to be a freeman, and not able to compete with the white race. He was willing to contribute money out of his own private pocket to assist all those in distress.

Mr. SMITH, replying to Mr. MALLORY, said he knew that petitions had been sent here from Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama planters, in favor of the system of free labor. Some owners of from 100 to 300 slaves had agreed to enter upon that system, and were to-day employing their slaves on their plantations at wages, and were thereby making more money than they ever did before under the old plan. The policy was just and right, and should be maintained.

Mr. BLISS, of Ohio, (Dem.,) opposed, and Mr. FARNSWORTH, of Illinois, (Union,) supported the item under consideration.

Mr. JAMES C. ALLEN, of Illinois, (Dem.,) was opposed to voting money to everybody who attached himself to a military camp. At one time in East Tennessee our soldiers were on half rations while the Government was supporting contraband negroes. The entire policy of fostering and protecting negroes in military camps was vicious in its effect.]

Mr. BLOW, of Missouri, (Union,) supported the items, and asked Mr. MALLORY if he did not know the fact that men in Missouri had been engaged in running off free persons of color to Kentucky, to be sold into Slavery.

Mr. MALLORY said if such was the fact, he was not aware of it; but if so, there was a statute in Kentucky to punish such crimes. As for mixed classes, he had heard of a convention which assembled at Louisville. They were neither Chase, Seward nor Lincoln men, yet they got along lovingly together, and constituted a happy family. He had not known until now that there were sable men at that convention.

Mr. BLOW never heard of any one being punished for such offences in Kentucky.

Mr. MALLORY—Have you, yourself, ever heard of any colored persons being carried forcibly from Missouri into Kentucky?

Mr. BLOW—I have.

Mr. MALLORY—If you point out the guilty man in Kentucky he will be punished.

Mr. FRANK P. BLAIR, of Missouri, (Union,) in reference to his colleague, Mr. BLOW, remarked that it could not properly be said that freemen had been run from Missouri into Kentucky. He knew of no authenticated case of the kind, and defied his colleague to produce the proof. His colleague and his colleague's friend had seized upon the sorrows of the negro race to make political capital. He recollected when his colleague was a Pro-Slavery man, and that was not a great while ago, when he supported in the Legislature a Pro-Slavery Senatorial candidate against Col. BENTON.

Mr. BLOW said he never had owned a slave in his life, and never had favored a Pro-Slavery candidate.

Mr. BLAIR reminded him that he voted for a Pro-Slavery candidate when he belonged to the "dark-lantern" party.

Mr. BLOW said he was himself a member of the American party, while the party of his colleague (BLAIR) was divided. He knew what his colleague claimed to be, but did not know what fraction of the party he belonged to. With regard to voting in the Legislature for United States Senator, the American party supported the candidate because he belonged to that organization, irrespective of his views on the Slavery question.

The discussion continued between Messrs. BLAIR, BLOW and ROLLINS, until the committee rose, and at half-past five o'clock the House adjourned.

The Opera Slander Suits—The Rights of a Married Woman to Exemption from Arrest.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—CHAMBERS.

Before Justice Daly.

Annie Wilson vs. Henrietta Sulzer.—This was one of the cases tried in the Marine Court last term, known as "The Opera Slander Suits." The plaintiff recovered a judgment against Signorita Sulzer for amount of $250, in an action for damages for using slanderous language to and in regard to plaintiff. Similar suits were instituted against Signor Biachi and Dr. Reisenbergher, which will be tried for the second time at the above term of the Marine Court. In the present case execution was issued against the property of Signorita Sulzer and returned unsatisfied. An execution was then issued against her person, when this motion was made to set aside the proceedings and discharge the defendant, on the ground that she was a married woman.

The affidavit of Madame Biachi, formerly Signorita Sulzer, was read, showing that when the judgment was recovered she was a single woman; but that on the 21st day of February last she was united in marriage to Signor Hannibal Biachi, of the Maretzek Opera Troupe, and her counsel claimed that she was exempt from arrest by reason of her marriage.

In reply counsel for plaintiff read the affidavit of Annie Wilson, setting forth that the defendant's salary as an opera-singer is $6,000 per year, payable every fortnight in advance; that the execution against her property was returned unsatisfied on the 19th of February, 1864, and that execution against her person was issued immediately afterward.

Mr. Osborn E. Bright, for the plaintiff, contended that the judgment was obtained while Miss Sulzer was unmarried; the execution against her property was returned unsatisfied before her marriage, but, on hearing that it was returned, she instantly married. That an execution against the person could be enforced in all cases in which the party might have been arrested under Sec. 179 of the Code, the marriage of the defendant did not protect her from arrest after judgment. It was also contended that the contract with Maretzek by which she was in receipt of $6,000 was her separate estate, and that a married woman having separate estate could be arrested in an action for slander. His Honor took the papers and reserved his decision.

Osborn E. Bright for the plaintiff; Benjamin Galbraith for the defendant.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES KNOWN AS
HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
a positive and Specific Remedy for Diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

H

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For weaknesses arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin,	Eruptions on the Face,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Pallid Countenance,

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow

IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS.

In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION!

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION ONCE AFFECTED BY ORGANIC WEKNESS

requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

E

FEMALES! FEMALES! FEMALES!
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularities, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Loucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

See symptoms above.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT

L

Take no Balsam, Mercury or Unpleasant Medicines, for unpleasant and Dangerous Diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES SECRET DISEASES

in all their stages, at little Expense; little or no change of Diet; no Inconvenience, AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling POISONOUS, DISEASED AND WORN-OUT MATTER.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid HEAVY FEES to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and,

PERHAPS, AFTER MARRIAGE.

M

USE HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing
IN MALE OR FEMALE,
From whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC, AND IT IS CERTAIN TO HAVE THE
DESIRED EFFECT
IN ALL DISEASES
FOR WHICH
IT IS RECOMMENDED.

B

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.
SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe and other mucus surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of sarsaparilla.

O

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH,

an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.
